

STATE OF NEW YORK

9277

IN ASSEMBLY

February 10, 2022

Introduced by M. of A. STECK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to establishing the chief disability officer; and to repeal article 19-E of the executive law relating to the office of the advocate for people with developmental disabilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Article 19-E of the executive law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the executive law relating to establishing the office of the advocate for people with disabilities, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 1836 and A. 3130, is REPEALED.

§ 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 4-b to read as follows:

§ 4-b. Chief disability officer. 1. Persons with disabilities comprise a major segment of the state of New York's population and their particular needs and concerns must be considered as an integral part of the planning and implementation of all state programs and services affecting their lives and well-being. The office of the chief disability officer shall advocate on behalf of persons with disabilities and ensure that persons with disabilities are afforded the opportunity to exercise all of the rights and responsibilities accorded to citizens of this state.

2. For purposes of this article:

(a) "Persons with disabilities" shall mean any person who has a disability as defined in subdivision twenty-one of section two hundred ninety-two of this chapter.

(b) "State agency" or "state agencies" shall mean any state department, board, bureau, division, commission, committee, public authority, public corporation, council, office or other governmental entity performing a governmental or proprietary function for the state, except the judiciary or the state legislature.

3. (a) The governor shall appoint a chief disability officer. The chief disability officer shall advise and assist state agencies in

1 developing policies designed to help meet the needs of persons with
2 disabilities. The chief disability officer shall be appointed by the 3 governor and receive a salary to be fixed by the governor within the 4 amounts appropriated therefor.

5 (b) The chief disability officer shall: (i) be the state's coordinator
6 for the implementation of the Americans with Disabilities Act; (ii)
7 coordinate state activities to ensure that state programs do not
8 discriminate against and are accessible to persons with disabilities;
9 (iii) ensure that such programs provide services to individuals with 10 disabilities in the most integrated setting appropriate to their needs;
11 and (iv) work with state agencies to develop legislation and potential
12 regulatory changes to help effectuate the duties and responsibilities
13 required in this article, and any other changes that may significantly
14 affect the lives of persons with disabilities in the state.

15 (c) The chief disability officer shall, to the extent practicable,
16 review and report to the governor upon proposed legislation and regu-
17 lations. The chief disability officer shall submit comments, where 18 appropriate, to the state agency which referred such proposed legis-
19 lation and regulations evaluating: (i) the impact of the proposed legis-
20 lation or regulation upon persons with disabilities; (ii) the relation-21 ship and impact of such proposed legislation or regulation on existing 22 programs affecting persons with disabilities; and (iii) any modifica-
23 tions that would help persons with disabilities or aid in the implemen-
24 tation of the new proposal. All state agencies shall cooperate with the 25 chief disability officer to ensure that the chief disability officer is 26 able to fulfill the requirements under this section.

27 § 3. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 702 of the executive law, as 28 amended by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the executive law
29 relating to establishing the office of the advocate for people with 30 disabilities, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 1836 and A.
31 3130, are amended to read as follows:

32 1. The most integrated setting coordinating council is hereby created
33 within the executive department to have and exercise the functions,
34 powers and duties provided by the provisions of this article and any 35 other provision of law. The council shall be comprised of the commis-
