4. assisting individuals in filing and preparing appeals, and representing individuals in appeals and hearings concerning adverse benefit determinations regarding services provided by the office for people with developmental disabilities or health homes serving individuals with developmental disabilities to individuals or services provided by other providers;

- 5. collecting, tracking, and quantifying problems and inquiries encountered by individuals; and
- 6. educating individuals on their rights and responsibilities with respect to access to services provided by the office for people with developmental disabilities and care coordination provided by health homes serving individuals with developmental disabilities or services provided by other providers.
- (c) Notices and materials provided to individuals by the office for people with developmental disabilities, providers of services, and the health homes serving individuals with developmental disabilities shall include the name, phone number and website address of the independent developmental disability ombudsman program established by the office for people with developmental disabilities pursuant to this section.
- 20 (d) Funds available for expenditure pursuant to this section for the 21 establishment of an independent developmental disability ombudsman program may be allocated and distributed by the commissioner of the 22 office for people with developmental disabilities, subject to the 23 approval of the director of the budget, but only after the commissioner 24 25 of the office for people with developmental disabilities holds a request for proposal process for the establishment of an independent develop-26 27 mental disability ombudsman program. Only domestic not-for-profit corporations shall be eligible to submit proposals for such program. Entities 28 that currently receive funding from the office for people with develop-29 30 mental disabilities to provide services to people with developmental 31 disabilities, or to operate care coordination organizations, or that 32 bill the Medicaid program for medical or healthcare services, shall be excluded from consideration. The commissioner of the office for people 33 34 with developmental disabilities shall consider all competitive proposals 35 submitted through such request for proposal process and shall determine 36 which proposal submitted is appropriate for the establishment of an 37 independent developmental disability ombudsman program. In making such determination, applicants who demonstrate experience providing advocacy 38 39 or assistance to people with developmental disabilities, experience operating a call center, or experience tracking and reporting on case 40 activities while protecting individual confidentiality shall receive 41 42 deference for the award.
- 43 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 44 it shall have become a law.
