AN ACT to amend the public service law, in relation to creating the state office of the utility consumer advocate

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The public service law is amended by adding a new article 1-A to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1-A

THE STATE OFFICE OF THE UTILITY CONSUMER ADVOCATE

Section 28-a. Definitions.

28-b. Establishment of the state office of the utility consumer advocate.

28-c. Powers of the state office of the utility consumer advocate.

28-d. Reports.

§ 28-a. Definitions. When used in this article: (a) "Department" means the department of public service.

(b) "Commission" means the public service commission.

(c) "Residential utility customer" means any person who is sold or offered for sale residential utility service by a utility company.

(d) "Utility company" means any person or entity operating an agency for public service, including, but not limited to, those persons or entities subject to the jurisdiction, supervision and regulations prescribed by or pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

§ 28-b. Establishment of the state office of the utility consumer advocate. There is established the state office of the utility consumer advocate to represent the interests of residential utility customers.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 The utility consumer advocate shall be appointed by the governor to a
2 term of six years, upon the advice and consent of the senate. The utili-
3 ty consumer advocate shall possess knowledge and experience in matters 4 affecting residential utility customers and shall be responsible for the 5 direction, control, and operation of the state office of the utility 6 consumer advocate, including its hiring of staff and retention of 7 experts for analysis and testimony in proceedings. The utility consumer 8 advocate shall not be removed for cause, but may be removed only after 9 notice and opportunity to be heard, and only for permanent disability, 10 malfeasance, a felony, or conduct involving moral turpitude. Exercise of 11 independent judgment in advocating positions on behalf of residential 12 utility customers shall not constitute cause for removal of the utility 13 consumer advocate.

14 § 28-c. Powers of the state office of the utility consumer advocate.
15 The state office of the utility consumer advocate shall have the power 16 and duty to: (a) initiate, intervene in, or participate on behalf of 17 residential utility customers in any proceedings before the commission,
18 the federal energy regulatory commission, the federal communications
19 commission, federal, state and local administrative and regulatory agen-
20 cies, and state and federal courts in any matter or proceeding that may 21 substantially affect the interests of residential utility customers,
22 including, but not limited to, a proposed change of rates, charges,
23 terms and conditions of service, the adoption of rules, regulations,
24 guidelines, orders, standards or final policy decisions where the utili-
25 ty consumer advocate deems such initiation, intervention or partic-
26 ipation to be necessary or appropriate;

27 (b) represent the interests of residential utility customers of the 28 state before federal, state and local administrative and regulatory 29 agencies engaged in the regulation of energy, telecommunications, water, 30 and other utility services, and before state and federal courts in 31 actions and proceedings to review the actions of utilities or orders of 32 utility regulatory agencies. Any action or proceeding brought by the 33 utility consumer advocate before a court or an agency shall be brought 34 in the name of the state office of the utility consumer advocate. The 35 utility consumer advocate may join with a residential utility customer 36 or group of residential utility customers in bringing an action;

37 (c) (i) in addition to any other authority conferred upon the utility 38 consumer advocate, he or she is authorized, and it shall be his or her 39 duty to represent the interests of residential utility customers as a 40 party, or otherwise participate for the purpose of representing the 41 interests of such customers before any agencies or courts. He or she may 42 initiate proceedings if in his or her judgment doing so may be necessary 43 in connection with any matter involving the actions or regulation of 44 public utility companies whether on appeal or otherwise initiated. The 45 utility consumer advocate may monitor all cases before regulatory agen-
46 cies in the United States, including the federal communications commis-
47 sion and the federal energy regulatory commission that affect the inter-48 ests of residential utility customers of the state and may formally 49 participate in those proceedings which in his or her judgment warrants 50 such participation.

51 (ii) the utility consumer advocate shall exercise his or her independ-
52 ent discretion in determining the interests of residential utility 53 customers that will be advocated in any proceeding, and determining 54 whether to participate in or initiate any proceeding and, in so deter-55 mining, shall consider the public interest, the resources available, and

1 the substantiality of the effect of the proceeding on the interests of 2 residential utility customers;

3 (d) request and receive from any state or local authority, agency,
4 department or division of the state or political subdivision such 5 assistance, personnel, information, books, records, other documentation 6 and cooperation necessary to perform his or her duties; and

7 (e) enter into cooperative agreements with other government offices to 8 efficiently carry out his or her work.

9 § 28-d. Reports. On July first, two thousand twenty-three and annually 10 thereafter, the state office of the utility consumer advocate shall 11 issue a report to the governor and the legislature, and make such report
12 available to the public free of charge on a publicly available website,
13 containing, but not limited to, the following information:

14 (a) all proceedings that the state office of the utility consumer 15 advocate participated in and the outcome of such proceedings, to the 16 extent of such outcome, and if not confidential;

17 (b) estimated savings to residential utility consumers that resulted 18 from intervention by the state office of the utility consumer advocate; 19 and

20 (c) policy recommendations and suggested statutory amendments that the 21 state office of the utility consumer advocate deems necessary.

22 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of April next succeeding 23 the date on which it shall have become a law.
