The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

4 (3) In addition to the requirements in paragraph two of this subdivi-
5 sion, when the grantor or grantee of a deed for a building used as resi-
6 dential real property containing up to four family dwelling units,
7 including condominiums and cooperatives, is a limited liability company 8 and the purchase is not secured by a mortgage, the joint return shall 9 not be accepted for filing unless it is accompanied by a document which 10 identifies the source or sources of funds used for the purchase, includ-
11 ing the type of funding used, the bank account information of any funds 12 used in the purchase and the amount used by each source of funds. If 13 any source of funds for such purchase originated from a foreign national 14 as defined in section 30121 of title 52 of the United States code, the 15 document shall identify such foreign national including their name and 16 address and any corporate entity owned by such foreign national.

17 (4) The return shall be filed with the recording officer before the 18 instrument effecting the conveyance may be recorded. However, if the tax
