

STATE OF NEW YORK

1017

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

(Prefiled)

January 6, 2021

Introduced by Sen. KAMINSKY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing certain offenses based on homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance, establishing the offense of criminal sale of a controlled substance to a child in the first degree, expanding the definition of controlled substances with respect to certain offenses, increasing the felony classification of certain controlled substance offenses and including electronic prescriptions and blank prescription forms in the definition of certain controlled substance offenses

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding three new sections
2 125.28, 125.29 and 125.30 to read as follows:

3 § 125.28 Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the 4 third degree.

5 A person is guilty of homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled 6 substance in the third degree when he or she:

7 1. Commits the offense of: (a) (i) criminal sale of a controlled
8 substance in the fifth degree as defined in section 220.31 of this chap-
9 ter; (ii) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the fourth degree 10 as defined in section 220.34 of this chapter; (iii) criminal sale of a 11 controlled substance in the third degree as defined in section 220.39 of 12 this chapter; (iv) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the second 13 degree as defined in section 220.41 of this chapter; or (v) criminal 14 sale of a controlled substance in the first degree as defined in section 15 220.43 of this chapter; and

16 (b) the controlled substance sold causes, or contributes to, the death
17 of the person to whom the controlled substance was sold.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

2. It shall be a rebuttable presumption that the controlled substance sold pursuant to subdivision one of this section caused or contributed to the death of the person where the type of controlled substance sold, alone or in combination with other substances, is determined to be the cause of death of the person when the death occurs within twenty-four hours of the sale.

3. The provisions of article two hundred sixteen of the criminal procedure law shall not apply to a violation of this section. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the court from sentencing a person convicted under this section to any other sentence authorized by law under articles sixty-five and seventy of this chapter.

4. Where a person (hereinafter "seller") violates the provisions of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section but the seller, in good faith, sought health care for the other person whose death resulted from the ingestion of the controlled substance sold, while that other person was experiencing the drug or alcohol overdose or other life threatening medical emergency that led to that person's death, the seller shall not be charged or prosecuted under this section or article two hundred twenty of this chapter when the sale was not for consideration or other benefit or gain.

5. It shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of this section or a violation of article two hundred twenty of this chapter where a seller violates paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section and the sale was for consideration or other benefit or gain, but the seller, in good faith, sought health care for the other person whose death resulted from the ingestion of the controlled substance sold, while that other person was experiencing a drug or alcohol overdose or other life threatening medical emergency that led to that person's death, and the defendant has no prior conviction for the commission or attempted commission of a class A-I, A-II or B felony under article two hundred twenty of this chapter.

Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the third degree is a class D felony.

§ 125.29 Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the second degree.

A person is guilty of homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the second degree when he or she:

1. Commits the offense of: (a) (i) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the fifth degree as defined in section 220.31 of this chapter; (ii) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the fourth degree as defined in section 220.34 of this chapter; (iii) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the third degree as defined in section 220.39 of this chapter; (iv) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the second degree as defined in section 220.41 of this chapter; or (v) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the first degree as defined in section 220.43 of this chapter; and

(b) the controlled substance sold causes, or contributes, to the death of the person to whom the controlled substance was sold; and

(c) (i) an additional substance was added to the controlled substance sold which enhances the effects of the controlled substance and/or increases the danger of ingestion; or

(ii) the person to whom the controlled substance was sold was impaired by one or more substances at the time of the sale; or

(iii) the person knew, or had reason to know, that the person to whom the controlled substance was sold was using, or intended to use, one or

1 more other substances in conjunction with the controlled substance sold;
2 or

3 (iv) the person knew, or had reason to know, that the person to whom 4 the controlled substance was sold had completed a rehabilitation
5 program, or overdosed, within thirty days of the sale.

6 2. It shall be a rebuttable presumption that the controlled substance
7 sold pursuant to subdivision one of this section caused or contributed
8 to the death of the person where the type of controlled substance sold,
9 alone or in combination with other substances, is determined to be the 10 cause of death of the person when the death occurs within twenty-four 11 hours of the sale.

12 3. The provisions of article two hundred sixteen of the criminal
13 procedure law shall not apply to a violation of this section. Nothing
14 contained in this section shall prevent the court from sentencing a
15 person convicted under this section to any other sentence authorized by 16 law under articles sixty-five and seventy of this chapter.

17 4. Where a person (hereinafter "seller") violates the provisions of 18 subdivision one of this section but the seller, in good faith, sought 19 health care for the other person whose death resulted from the ingestion
20 of the controlled substance sold, while that other person was experienc-
21 ing the drug or alcohol overdose or other life threatening medical emer-
22 gency that led to that person's death, the seller shall not be charged 23 or prosecuted under this section or article two hundred twenty of this 24 chapter when the sale was not for consideration or other benefit or 25 gain.

26 5. It shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of this section
27 or a violation of article two hundred twenty of this chapter where a 28 seller violates the provisions of subdivision one of this section and 29 the sale was for consideration or other benefit or gain, but the seller,
30 in good faith, sought health care for the other person whose death
31 resulted from the ingestion of the controlled substance sold, while that 32 other person was experiencing a drug or alcohol overdose or other life 33 threatening medical emergency that led to that person's death, and the 34 defendant has no prior conviction for the commission or attempted
35 commission of a class A-I, A-II or B felony under article two hundred 36 twenty of this chapter.

37 Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the second 38 degree is a class C felony.

39 § 125.30 Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the 40 first degree.

41 A person is guilty of homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled 42 substance in the first degree when he or she:

43 1. Commits the offense of criminal sale of a controlled substance to a 44 child in the first degree as defined in section 220.49 of this chapter
45 and the controlled substance sold causes, or contributes, to the death
46 of the person to whom the controlled substance was sold.

47 2. It shall be a rebuttable presumption that the controlled substance
48 sold pursuant to subdivision one of this section caused or contributed
49 to the death of the person where the type of controlled substance sold,
50 alone or in combination with other substances, is determined to be the 51 cause of death of the person when the death occurs within twenty-four
52 hours of the sale.

53 3. The provisions of article two hundred sixteen of the criminal
54 procedure law shall not apply to a violation of this section. Nothing
55 contained in this section shall prevent the court from sentencing a

1 person convicted under this section to any other sentence authorized by
2 law under articles sixty-five and seventy of this chapter.

3 4. It shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of this section
4 or a violation of article two hundred twenty of this chapter where a
5 person (hereinafter "seller") violates subdivision one of this section 6 and the sale was for consideration or other benefit or gain, but the 7 seller, in good faith, sought health care for the other person whose 8 death resulted from the ingestion of the controlled substance sold, 9 while that other person was experiencing a drug or alcohol overdose or 10 other life threatening medical emergency that led to that person's 11 death, and the defendant has no prior conviction for the commission or 12 attempted commission of a class A-I, A-II or B felony under article two 13 hundred twenty of this chapter.
