2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 6, 2021

Introduced by Sen. STEWART-COUSINS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to aiding in the transition to adulthood for children with medical fragility living in pediatric nursing homes and other settings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section
2	2808-e to read as follows:
3	§ 2808-e. Residential health care for children with medical fragility
4	in transition to young adults and young adults with medical fragility.
5	1. For purposes of this section:
б	(a) "children with medical fragility" shall mean children up to twen-
7	ty-one years of age who have a chronic debilitating condition or condi-
8	tions, are at risk of hospitalization, are technology-dependent for life
9	or health sustaining functions, require complex medication regimens or
10	medical interventions to maintain or to improve their health status,
11	and/or are in need of ongoing assessment or intervention to prevent
12	serious deterioration of their health status or medical complications
13	that place their life, health or development at risk.
14	(b) "young adults with medical fragility" shall mean individuals who
15	meet the definition of children with medical fragility, but for the fact
16	such individuals are aged twenty-one years or older.
17	(c) "pediatric residential health care facility" shall mean a free-
18	standing facility or discrete unit within a facility authorized by the 19	commissioner to provide extensive nursing, medical, psychological and
20	counseling support services solely to children.
21	2. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, any
22	child with medical fragility who has resided for at least thirty consec-
23	utive days in a pediatric residential health care facility and who has
24	reached the age of twenty-one while a resident, may continue residing at

1	such pediatric facility and receiving such services from the facility,
2	provided that such young adult with medical fragility remains eligible
3	for nursing home care.
4	3. The commissioner is authorized to establish, with the written
5	approval of the public health and health planning council pursuant to б	section twenty-eight hundred one-a of this article, one or more new
7	residential health care facilities for the provision of nursing,
8	medical, psychological and counseling support services appropriate to
9	the needs of nursing home-eligible young adults with medical fragility,
10	referred to herein below as a young adult facility, which such young
11	adult facility may be proposed by an established or proposed operator of 12	a pediatric residential health care facility or a discrete unit within
13	an established nursing home in good standing.
14	4. A young adult facility established pursuant to subdivision three of
15	this section may admit, from the community-at-large or upon referral
16	from an unrelated facility, young adults with medical fragility who
17	prior to reaching age twenty-one were children with medical fragility,
18	and who are eligible for nursing home care and in need of extensive
19	nursing, medical, psychological and counseling support services,
20	provided that the young adult facility, to promote continuity of care,
21	undertakes to provide priority admission to young adults with medical
22	fragility transitioning from the pediatric residential health care
23	facility operated by the entity that proposed the young adult facility
24	and ensure sufficient capacity to admit such young adults as they
25	approach or attain twenty-one years of age.
26	5. (a) For inpatient services provided to any young adults with 20 27	medical fragility eligible for medical assistance pursuant to title eleven of article five of the social services law residing at any pedia-
28	tric residential health care facility as authorized in subdivision two
