STATE OF NEW YORK

1126--A

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 7, 2021

Introduced by Sens. GIANARIS, HARCKHAM, KRUEGER, MAYER, MYRIE, RAMOS, SALAZAR -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Elections -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to enacting the "democracy preservation act"; and in relation to prohibiting contributions by foreign-influenced business entities and requiring certification

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "democracy 2 preservation act".

3 § 2. Legislative Findings. The legislature hereby finds and declares 4 that New York state welcomes immigrants, visitors, and investors from 5 around the world. However, its elections should be decided by the people 6 of New York and not by foreign investors or the business entities over which they exert influence. Corporations with partial foreign ownership 7 8 have been spending money to influence state and local elections in New 9 York and around the country. The public has a compelling interest in 10 limiting the participation of foreign entities in activities of American 11 democratic self-government, which include spending money to influence voters and finance campaigns, in the interest of preventing foreign 12 influence over the United States political process. 13

14 Investors are the ultimate beneficiaries of corporate interests. Where 15 part of the shareholders' equity is attributable to foreign investors, 16 spending corporate treasury funds on New York elections means spending 17 the equity of foreign entities on New York elections.

Business corporations and similar entities have a fiduciary duty to their shareholders, including investors around the world, and generally prioritize the interests of such shareholders, which may diverge substantially from the interests of the people of New York and of citi-

1 zens of the United States. In addition, both formal procedures of corporate democracy and informal mechanisms of influence can provide foreign investors with substantial influence even with only a minority of shares. The United States Securities and Exchange Commission, major capital investors, corporate managers, and corporate governance experts broadly agree that ownership or control of one percent or more of shares can confer substantial influence on corporate decision-making.

8 Political spending by foreign-influenced business entities can weaken, 9 interfere with, or disrupt New York's democratic self-government and the 10 faith that the electorate has in its elected officials. To protect the 11 integrity of New York's democratic self-government, it is necessary to 12 prevent foreign-influenced business entities from influencing New York 13 elections through political spending.

14 § 3. The election law is amended by adding a new section 14-116-a to 15 read as follows:

16 § 14-116-a. Prohibited contributions by foreign-influenced business 17 entities. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, it 18 shall be unlawful for a foreign-influenced business entity, directly or 19 indirectly, to make a contribution or donation of money or other thing 20 of value, or to make an express or implied promise to make a contrib-21 ution or donation, in connection with a state or local election.

22 2. It shall be unlawful for a business entity prohibited under subdi-23 vision one of this section, directly or indirectly, to make a contrib-24 ution or donation to a constituted committee, independent expenditure 25 committee, political committee, or party committee.

3. It shall be unlawful for a business entity prohibited under subdivision one of this section, directly or indirectly, to make an expenditure, independent expenditure, or disbursement for a political communication.

However, a person may use funds that do not comply with the 40 41 requirements of this section for other lawful purposes.

42 6. A person who receives a contribution or donation from a business 43 entity, and also receives from the business entity a copy of the state-44 ment of certification described in subdivision four of section 14-116 of 45 this title, may use such funds for the purposes described in subdivision 46 one, two, or three of this section only if the person separately desig-47 nates, records, and accounts for such funds, and ensures that disbursements for the purposes described in subdivision one, two, or three of 48 49 this section are only made from funds that comply with the requirements of this section. A person may rely in good faith on a statement of 50 51 certification that meets the requirements of subdivision four of section 52 14-116 of this title. 53 7.
