2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 8, 2021

Introduced by Sen. PERSAUD -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to prohibiting the inclusion of claims for unemployment insurance arising from the closure of an employer due to COVID-19 from being included in such employer's experience rating charges; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 581-a of the labor law, as amended 2 by chapter 617 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

3 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of section five hundred eighty-one 4 of this title to the contrary, any employer whose employees receive 5 payments under this article and whose claims for unemployment insurance 6 arise due to the closure of the employer or a reduction in the workforce
7 of the employer for reasons related to the COVID-19 pandemic, or due to 8 a mandatory order of a government entity duly authorized to issue such 9 order to close such employer due to the COVID-19 pandemic, on or after 10 March twelfth, two thousand twenty shall not have included in their 11 experience rating charges the amounts so paid to the employees from the 12 fund.

13 4. The provisions of this section shall apply to an employer liable 14 for payments in lieu of contributions, but if the secretary of labor of 15 the United States finds that their application to such employer does not 16 meet the requirements of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, such 17 provisions shall be inoperative with respect to such employer, unless 18 and until such finding has been set aside pursuant to a final decision 19 issued in accordance with such judicial review proceedings as may be 20 instituted and completed under the provisions of section thirty-three 21 hundred ten of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

22 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire December 23 31, 2021, when upon such date the provisions of this act shall be deemed 24 repealed.
