AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to allowing valid certificates of marriage from foreign governments and religious institutions as acceptable documentation to change a name on the driver's license or non-driver identification card

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 502 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new subdivision 1-a to read as follows:

1-a. In addition to any other documentation acceptable to the commissioner for the purposes of changing a person's name on a driver's license pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the commissioner may accept a valid certificate of marriage from the government of a foreign country or from a bona fide religious institution that issues certificates of marriage in a foreign country.

§ 2. Section 502 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3-a to read as follows:

3-a. In addition to any other documentation acceptable to the commissioner for the purposes of changing a person's name on a learner's permit pursuant to subdivisions two and three of this section, the commissioner may accept a valid certificate of marriage from the government of a foreign country or from a bona fide religious institution that issues certificates of marriage in a foreign country.

§ 3. Section 490 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new subdivision 2-a to read as follows:

2-a. In addition to any other documentation acceptable to the commissioner for purposes of changing a person's name on an identification
