§ 5. Section 171-a of the tax law, as separately amended by chapters 481 and 484 of the laws of 1981, is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. Notwithstanding subdivision one of this section or any other provision of law to the contrary, with regards to any increase in the taxes imposed pursuant to section six hundred one of this chapter attributable to the difference in the rate of such taxes for taxable years beginning in and after two thousand twenty-one and the rate of such taxes for taxable years beginning in two thousand twenty, fifty percent shall be deposited in the state lottery fund, created pursuant to section ninety-two-c of the state finance law, and fifty percent shall be deposited with the New York state department of health for medicaid expenses, as such taxes are received. The amount for administrative costs shall be determined by the commissioner to represent reasonable costs of the department in administering, collecting, determining, and distributing such taxes. Of the total revenue collected or received under such sections of this chapter, the comptroller shall retain in his or her hands such amount as the commissioner may determine to be necessary for refunds or reimbursements under such sections of this chapter out of which amount the comptroller shall pay any refunds or reimbursements to which taxpayers shall be entitled under provisions of such sections. The commissioner and the comptroller shall maintain a system of accounts showing the amount of revenue collected or received from each of the taxes imposed by such sections.

§ 6. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable years beginning on and after such date.
