prepared by no fewer than twenty separately owned and operated food service establishments.

- 2. Per-order fees. It shall be unlawful for third-party food delivery services to impose on a covered establishment a fee per online order for the use of their services that totals more than ten percent of the purchase price of such online order.
- 3. Penalties. Any person that violates subdivision two of this section or any rules or regulations promulgated pursuant to this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than one thousand dollars per violation. Violations shall accrue on a daily basis for each day and for each covered establishment charged a fee in violation of this section or any rule promulgated pursuant to this section.
- 4. Enforcement. The secretary of state may seek any relief available 14 under article sixty-three of the civil practice law and rules in a proceeding against any person alleged to be in violation of this section. In addition, the attorney general may bring an action on behalf of the people of the state of New York to enjoin acts in violation of this section and to recover any civil penalties unless civil penalties have been previously recovered in such administrative proceedings.
- 20 5. Rules and regulations. The division of consumer protection, in 21 conjunction with the secretary of state, shall promulgate any rules and 22 regulations necessary to implement this section.
- § 2. This act shall take effect immediately. 23
