1 shall continue to serve until the expiration of their respective terms.
2 Thereafter, their respective successors shall be appointed for terms of 3 four years. The member representing local government shall be appointed 4 for a term of four years, so long as such member shall remain a duly 5 elected officer of a local government. The committee shall hold no less 6 than two meetings annually, but may meet at any time. The members of the 7 committee shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses 8 incurred in the discharge of their duties. The executive director of 9 the committee shall maintain a permanent office in Albany in such suit-10 able space as the commissioner of the department of state provides. All 11 papers required to be filed with or served upon the committee shall be 12 delivered to such office. Each member shall receive two hundred dollars 13 per day for each day such member is present at a committee hearing or 14 meeting, and shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary 15 expenses incurred in connection therewith.

16 (c) The committee shall, subject to the civil service law, employ such 17 employees as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this 18 section. The committee may enter into such contractual agreements as may 19 be necessary for the discharge of its duties, within the limits of its 20 appropriated funds and in accordance with established procedures.

21 (d) i. Any person denied the right to inspect or copy records, denied 22 the right to attend any meeting of a public agency or denied any other 23 right conferred by this article and article seven of this chapter may 24 appeal therefrom to the committee by filing a notice of appeal with the 25 committee. A notice of appeal shall be filed not later than thirty days 26 after such denial, except in the case of an unnoticed or secret meeting, 27 in which case the appeal shall be filed not later than thirty days after 28 the person filing the appeal receives notice in fact that such meeting 29 was held. For purposes of this paragraph, such notice of appeal shall be 30 deemed to be filed on the date it is received by said committee or on 31 the date it is postmarked, if received more than thirty days after the 32 date of the denial from which such appeal is taken.

33 ii. Upon receipt of such notice, the committee shall serve upon all 34 parties, by certified or registered mail, a copy of such notice together 35 with any other notice or order of such committee. In the case of the 36 denial of a request to inspect or copy records contained in a public 37 employee's personnel or medical file, the committee shall include with 38 its notice or order an order requiring the public agency to notify any 39 employee whose records are subject of an appeal, and the employee's 40 collective bargaining representative, if any, of the committee's 41 proceedings and, if any such employee or collective bargaining represen-42 tative has filed an objection, the agency shall provide the required 43 notice to such employee and collective bargaining representative by 44 certified mail, return receipt requested or by hand delivery with a 45 signed receipt. A public employee whose personnel or medical file is the 46 subject of an appeal may intervene as a party in the proceedings on the 47 matter before the committee.

48 (e) i. The committee shall, after due notice to the parties and 49 subject to the provisions of this article and article seven of this 50 chapter, promptly review the alleged violation of said articles. The 51 committee shall have the power to investigate all alleged violations of 52 this article and article seven of this chapter and may for the purpose 53 of investigating any violation hold a hearing, administer oaths, examine 54 witnesses, receive oral and documentary evidence, have the power to 55 subpoena witnesses under procedural rules adopted by the committee to 56 compel attendance and to require the production for examination of any

1 books and papers which the committee deems relevant in any matter under 2 investigation or in question. In case of a refusal to comply with any 3 such subpoena or to testify with respect to any matter upon which that 4 person may be lawfully interrogated, a court of competent jurisdiction, 5 on application of the committee, may issue an order requiring such 6 person to comply with such subpoena and to testify; failure to obey any 7 such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt ther-8 eof.

9 ii. The committee shall hear and decide each appeal within six months 10 after the filing of the notice of appeal. The committee shall adopt 11 regulations establishing criteria for those appeals which shall be priv-12 ileged in their assignment for hearing. Any such privileged appeal shall 13 be heard not later than thirty days after receipt of a notice of appeal 14 and decided not later than sixty days after a hearing.

15 iii. If a notice of appeal concerns an announced agency decision to 16 meet in executive session or an ongoing agency practice of meeting in 17 executive sessions, for a stated purpose, the committee or a member or 18 members of the committee designated by its chairperson shall serve 19 notice upon the parties and hold a preliminary hearing on the appeal not 20 later than seventy-two hours after receipt of the notice, provided such 21 notice shall be given to the parties at least forty-eight hours prior to 22 such hearing. During such preliminary hearing, the committee shall take 23 evidence and receive testimony from the parties. If after the prelimi-24 nary hearing the committee finds probable cause to believe that the 25 agency decision or practice is in violation of article seven of this 26 chapter, the agency shall not meet in executive session for such purpose 27 until the committee decides the appeal. If probable cause is found by 28 the committee, it shall conduct a final hearing on the appeal and render 29 its decision not later than five days after the completion of the 30 preliminary hearing. Such decision shall specify the committee's find-31 ings of fact and conclusions of law.

32 iv. The committee, at its discretion, may issue an order to disconti-33 ue all work resulting from an alleged violation of this article and 34 article seven of this chapter if irreparable harm is deemed to poten-35 tially occur. This order will hold until a decision is rendered by the 36 committee on the alleged violation.

37 (f) i. In any appeal to the committee, the committee may confirm the 38 action of the agency or order the agency to provide relief that the 39 committee, in its discretion, believes appropriate to rectify the denial 40 of any right conferred by this article and article seven of this chap-41 ter. The committee may declare null and void any action taken at any 42 meeting which a person was denied the right to attend and may require 43 the production or copying of any public record. In addition, upon find-44 ing that a denial of any right created by this article and article seven 45 of this chapter was without reasonable grounds and after the custodian 46 or other official directly responsible for the denial has been given an 47 opportunity to be heard at a hearing conducted in accordance with arti-
48 cle seven of this chapter the committee may, in its discretion, impose 49 against the custodian or other official a civil penalty of not less than 50 twenty dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.

51 ii. If the committee finds that a person has taken an appeal frivo-52 lously, without reasonable grounds, after such person has been given an 53 opportunity to be heard at a hearing conducted in accordance with arti-
54 cle seven of this chapter, the committee may, in its discretion, impose 55 against that person a civil penalty of not less than twenty dollars nor 56 more than one thousand dollars.

1 iii. The committee shall notify a person of a penalty levied against 2 him pursuant to this subdivision by written notice sent by certified or 3 registered mail. If a person fails to pay the penalty within thirty days 4 of receiving such notice, a court of competent jurisdiction shall, on 5 application of the committee, issue an order requiring the person to pay 6 the penalty imposed.

7 iv. The committee shall provide due notice to the parties and review 8 affidavits and written arguments that the parties may submit and grant 9 or deny such leave summarily at its next regular meeting. The committee 10 shall grant such leave unless it finds that the appeal: (A) does not 11 present a claim within the committee's jurisdiction; (B) would perpe-12 trate an injustice; or (C) would constitute an abuse of the committee's 13 administrative process. Any party aggrieved by the committee's denial of 14 such leave may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction, within 15 fifteen days of the committee meeting at which such leave was denied, 16 for an order requiring the committee to hear such appeal.

17 v. In making the findings and determination, the committee shall 18 consider the nature of any justice or abuse of administrative process, 19 including but not limited to: (A) the nature, content, language or 20 subject matter of the request or the appeal; (B) the nature, content, 21 language or subject matter to prior or contemporaneous requests or 22 appeals by the person making the request or taking the appeal; and (C) 23 the nature, content, language or subject matter of other verbal and 24 written communications to any agency or any official of any agency from 25 the person making the request or taking the appeal.

26 vi. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, in 27 the case of an appeal to the committee of a denial by a public agency, 28 the committee may, upon motion of such agency, confirm the action of the 29 agency and dismiss the appeal without a hearing if it finds, after exam-30 ining the notice of appeal and construing all allegations most favorably 31 to the appellant, that (A) the agency has not violated this article and 32 article seven of this chapter or (B) the agency has committed a techni-33 cal violation that constitutes a harmless error that does not infringe 34 the appellant's rights.

35 (g) i. If in the judgment of the committee circumstances so warrant, 36 it may at any time after the filing of a notice of appeal endeavor to 37 resolve the appeal by any method of dispute resolution prescribed by 38 rule of the committee including, but not limited to, mediation.

39 ii. The terms of any mediation agreement may contain such provisions 40 as may be agreed upon by the committee, the appellant and the respond-41 ent.

42 iii. The members of the committee and its staff shall not publicly 43 disclose what transpired in the course of mediation efforts.

44 iv. If a mediation agreement is entered into, the committee shall 45 embody such agreement in an order and serve a copy of such order upon 46 all parties to the agreement. Violation of such an order may cause the 47 imposition of civil penalties.

48 (h) Any party aggrieved by the decision of said committee may appeal 49 to the judiciary therefrom, the court may conduct an in camera review of 50 the original or a certified copy of the records which are at issue in 51 the appeal but were not included in the record of the committee's 52 proceedings, admit the records into evidence and order the records to be 53 sealed or inspected on such terms as the court deems fair and appropri-54 ate, during the appeal. The committee shall have standing to defend, 55 prosecute or otherwise participate in any appeal of any of its decisions 56 and to take an appeal from any judicial decision overturning or modifying a decision of the committee. If agreement is a jurisdictional prerequisite to the committee taking any such appeal, the committee shall be deemed to be aggrieved. Legal counsel employed or retained by said committee shall represent said committee in all such appeals and in any other litigation affecting said committee. Any appeal taken pursuant to this section shall be privileged in respect to its assignment for trial over all other actions except writs of habeas corpus and actions brought by or on behalf of the state, including information on the relation of private individuals. If the court finds that any appeal taken pursuant to this section is frivolous or taken solely for the purpose of delay, it shall order the party responsible therefor to pay to the party injured by such frivolous or dilatory appeal costs or attorney's fees of not more than one thousand dollars. Such order shall be in addition to any other remedy or disciplinary action required or permitted by statute or by rules of court.

§ 3. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of subdivision 4 of section 89 of the public officers law, paragraph (b) as amended by chapter 22 of the laws of 2005 and paragraph (c) as amended by chapter 453 of the laws of 2017, are amended to read as follows:

(b) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, a person denied access to a record in an appeal determination under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision may ~~[bring a proceeding for review of such denial pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. In the event that access to any record is denied pursuant to the provisions of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article, the agency involved shall have the burden of proving that such record falls within the provisions of such subdivision two. Failure by an agency to conform to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall constitute a denial.]~~

~~(c) The court in such a proceeding: (i) may assess, against such agency involved, reasonable attorney's fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred by such person in any case under the provisions of this section in which such person has substantially prevailed, and when the agency failed to respond to a request or appeal within the statutory time; and (ii) shall assess, against such agency involved, reasonable attorney's fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred by such person in any case under the provisions of this section in which such person has substantially prevailed and the court finds that the agency had no reasonable basis for denying access]~~ appeal to the committee on open government pursuant to subdivision one of this section.

§ 4. Section 107 of the public officers law, as added by chapter 511 of the laws of 1976, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 44 of the laws of 2010 and subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 397 of the laws of 2008 and such section as renumbered by chapter 652 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

In any such action or proceeding, if a court determines that a public body failed to comply with this article, the court shall have the power, in its discretion, upon good cause shown, to declare that the public body violated this article and/or declare the action taken in relation to such violation void, in whole or in part, without prejudice to reconsideration in compliance with this article. If the court determines that a public body has violated this article, the~~

~~court may require the members of the public body to participate in a training session concerning the obligations imposed by this article conducted by the staff of the committee on open government.~~

If a court determines that a vote was taken in material violation of this article, or that substantial deliberations relating thereto occurred in private prior to such vote, the court shall award costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the successful petitioner, unless there was a reasonable basis for a public body to believe that a closed session could properly have been held.~~
