AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to law enforcement intervention against police misconduct

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 837-w to read as follows:

§ 837-w. Law enforcement intervention against police misconduct. 1. Definitions. When used in this section, and unless the specific context indicates otherwise, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Police misconduct" means conduct by a law enforcement officer in the course of an arrest or otherwise in the official capacity of such law enforcement officer that is:

(i) excessive, forceful, or violent and that is not justified under section 35.30 of the penal law;

(ii) a false arrest;

(iii) sexual misconduct; or

(iv) witness tampering.

(b) A "law enforcement employee" means:

(i) any employee of the state police department, as defined in section two hundred twenty-three of this chapter;

(ii) any employee of a county sheriff's department; or

(iii) any employee of a city, town, village, university, park, or public authority's police department.

2. Immunity from professional retaliation against a law enforcement employee who intervenes against police misconduct. A law enforcement agency shall not take any retaliatory personnel action, as such term is
