Pensions

AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to allowing additional credits for children and siblings of firefighters, police officers, emergency medical technicians, or paramedics killed in the administrative line of duty

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The section heading and subdivision 1 of section 85-a of 2 the civil service law, as amended by chapter 376 of the laws of 2013,
3 are amended to read as follows:
4 Additional credits allowed children [~~and~~] or siblings of firefighters, 5 police officers, emergency medical technicians and paramedics killed in 6 the line of duty or killed in the administrative line of duty. 1. Additional credit authorized. Additional credits shall be allowed children
7 and siblings of firefighters, police officers, emergency medical technicians [~~and~~] or paramedics killed in the line of duty or killed in the 8 administrative line of duty, as "child" and "sibling" in this section in 9 competitive examinations for original appointment. (a) On all eligible 10 lists resulting from competitive examinations, the names of eligible 11 persons shall be entered in the order of their respective final earned 12 ratings on examinations, with the name of the eligible person with the 13 highest final earned ratings at the head of such list, provided, however, 14 that for the purpose of determining final earned ratings, children
15 and siblings of firefighters, police officers, emergency medical technicians [~~and~~] or paramedics killed in the line of duty or killed in the 16 administrative line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional 17 ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the 18 same municipality in which his or her parent or sibling has served. For 19 the purposes of this paragraph, a police officer [~~or~~], firefighter,

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

LBD03665-01-1

1 emergency medical technician, or paramedic shall be deemed to have 2 "served" in a municipality if he or she was employed by, or worked 3 primarily in, that municipality. For the purposes of this section, 4 "killed in the administrative line of duty" shall mean having died in 5 the performance of duty or following the performance of duty where such 6 performance of duty was the natural and proximate cause of death.

7 (b) Such additional credit shall be added to the final earned rating
8 of such child or sibling, as the case may be, after he or she has quali-9 fied in the competitive examination and shall be granted only at the 10 time of establishment of the resulting eligible list.

11 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
