AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to requiring chain restaurants to label menu items that have a high content of sodium

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section
2 1356 to read as follows:

3 § 1356. Chain restaurants; sodium content of menu items. 1. Definitions. For purposes of this section the following terms shall have the 4 following meanings:

5 a. "Chain restaurant" means a food service establishment that is part 6 of a chain with fifteen or more locations within the state doing busi-7 ness under the same name, regardless of the type of ownership of the 8 locations, and offering for sale substantially similar menu items.

9 b. "Daily value" means the daily reference value used by the United 10 States Food and Drug Administration in calculating the percent daily 11 value for nutrition information provided on food labels.

12 c. "Food service establishment" means a place where food is 13 prepared and intended for individual portion service and includes the 14 site at which the individual portions are provided, whether consumption
15 occurs on or off the premises. The term excludes food processing
16 establishments, retail food stores, private homes where food is prepared 17 or served for family consumption, and food service operations where a 18 distinct group mutually provides, prepares, serves and consumes the 19 food such as "covered-dish supper" limited to a congregation,
20 club or fraternal organization.

1 d. "Menu or menu board" means the primary writing of a food service
2 establishment from which a customer makes an order selection, including,
3 but not limited to, breakfast, lunch, and dinner menus; dessert menus;
4 beverage menus; children's menus; other specialty menus; electronic 5 menus; and menus on the internet.

6 e. "Standard menu item" means a food or beverage item that is listed 7 on a menu or menu board, excluding temporary menu items appearing on the 8 menu for less than sixty days per calendar year.

9 2. Industry guidance. Within one year of the effective date of this 10 section, the department shall publish guidance explaining the require-11 ments of this section and how businesses can comply.

12 3. Sodium warning icon. No later than one year after the effective
13 date of this section, the department shall develop an icon with accompa-
14 nying text that shall be displayed adjacent to the name of any standard 15 menu item that exceeds the daily value for sodium. Beginning two years 16 after the effective date of this section any chain restaurant operating 17 within the state and not otherwise exempted under subdivision seven of 18 this section shall display on menus or menu boards:

19 a. The sodium warning icon and accompanying text promulgated by the 20 department pursuant to this subdivision, at a height no smaller than the 21 largest letter in the name of the item; and

22 b. The following factual statement explaining the sodium warning icon:
23 "Warning (insert icon image here) indicates that the sodium (salt)
24 content of this item may exceed half the total daily recommended limit.
25 Regularly eating more than the daily recommended limit can increase 26 blood pressure and risk of heart disease and stroke."

27 4. Report required. No later than six years after the effective date 28 of this section, the department shall issue a report reviewing evidence 29 of the impact of this section on menu item reformulation and consumer 30 behavior, and recommend additional nutrients that should be considered 31 for menu warning icons.

32 5. Violations. Any chain restaurant that violates the provisions of 33 this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than two 34 hundred fifty dollars per day for each location not in compliance.

35 6. Exemptions. The sodium warning icon required pursuant to subdivi-36 sion three of this section shall not be required to be displayed next to 37 a menu item that is already labeled with a sodium icon equal or greater 38 in size and similar in general appearance, when such icon is required
39 pursuant to a rule, regulation, ordinance, local law, order or policy 40 issued by another jurisdiction having the same or substantially similar 41 effect as determined by the commissioner. Food service establishments
42 exempted from the sodium warning labeling requirement by this subdivi-
43 sion shall be used in determining if a particular food service estab-
44 lishment is a chain restaurant.

45 § 2. Severability. If any provision of this act, or any application of 46 any provision of this act, is held to be invalid, or to violate or be 47 inconsistent with any federal law or regulation, that shall not affect 48 the validity or effectiveness of any other provision of this act, or of 49 any other application of any provision of this act, which can be given 50 effect without that provision or application; and to that end, the 51 provisions and applications of this act are severable.

52 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
