Introduced by Sen. RAMOS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Veterans, Homeland Security and Military Affairs

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to establishing benefits and protections of essential employees during a state of emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 20 of the executive law is amended 2 by adding a new paragraph 1 to read as follows:

3 1. "Essential services" means services, whether rendered to the 4 government or to any other person, provided by essential persons, busi-
5 nesses, non-profits or other entities.

6 § 2. Subparagraph 4 of paragraph a of subdivision 7 of section 23 of 7 the executive law, as amended by section 4 of part B of chapter 56 of 8 the laws of 2010, is amended and two new subparagraphs 5 and 6 are added
9 to read as follows:

10 (4) such other measures as reasonably can be taken to protect lives,
11 prevent disasters, and reduce their impact[-];

12 (5) such measures as reasonably can be taken to provide all benefits
13 and protections to employees of essential persons, businesses, non-pro-14 fits or other entities providing essential services that maintain 15 support for such positions including, but not limited to, child care, 16 medical supplies and/or personal protective equipment;

17 (6) suggested measures to provide care to, at a minimum, students aged 18 twelve and under. In order to ensure that emergency plans are providing 19 for the needs of such students, such plans shall clarify the work that 20 falls within each of the identified essential persons, businesses, non-21 profits or other entities. Additionally, such plans shall be used by 22 child care providers to prioritize the needs of essential workers during 23 an emergency.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
