1 a. Except as hereinafter provided, the state and any governmental agency or political subdivision or public benefit corporation of the 3 state shall not purchase or obtain for any purpose any tropical hardwoods or tropical hardwood products, wholesale or retail, in any form, and shall seek to maximize the use of environmentally preferable building materials by whatever means practicable by law.

- § 3. Section 165 of the state finance law is amended by adding a new subdivision 2-a to read as follows:
- 9 2-a. Eligible certifier list. a. The governor shall direct the appro-10 priate department or agency that he or she so designates to create a 11 list of eligible forest certifiers and chain of custody certifiers.
- b. The designated department or agency shall promulgate rules and regulations when specifying the information that forest certifiers and 14 chain of custody certifiers provide in order to be deemed eligible for the purposes of fulfilling the eliqibility requirements of this section. Such eligibility requirements shall include but not be limited to:
- (i) conducting on the ground audits, using an interdisciplinary team 17 of experts to evaluate the ecological, social, and economic impact of 18 19 forest management practices; and
  - (ii) separate chain of custody certification, linking each certified forest product to its certified forest of origin.
- 22 c. Once the designated department or agency has determined that a certifier has met the eligibility requirements specified, the certifier 23 shall be deemed to be an approved and eligible certifier for purposes of 24 25 this section.
- 26 § 4. Subdivision 2 of section 165 of the state finance law is amended 27 by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows:
- e. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to prohibit any local 28 29 government from adopting any local law, ordinance, rule or regulation 30 governing the purchase of commodities which is more restrictive than the 31 provisions of this section relating to the use of tropical hardwoods or 32 wood products.
  - § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
