6 lenged on election day which is furnished by the board of elections.

7 3. Any person, other than an inspector or clerk, may challenge the 16 Such affidavit shall contain the affiant's full name, residence and 17 business address, the name of his or her employer, the registration 18 serial number of the person challenged and a recital of the reasons and 19 the facts supporting the affiant's belief that the person challenged 20 lacks one or more of the qualifications for voting prescribed in section 21 5-102 or 5-106 of this chapter and specified in such affidavit. The 22 affidavit shall state if the reason for challenge are based upon the 23 affiant's personal knowledge or upon information received from another 24 person. If the affiant's belief is based upon information furnished by 25 another, the affidavit shall recite the name of the person furnishing 26 the information and the basis for his or her information. After the 27 affiant has filed such affidavit, an inspector from each major party 28 shall read to him or her and request him or her to sign the following 29 oath which shall be subscribed by such affiant: "I do solemnly swear (or 30 affirm) that I am a qualified voter of the city or county in which this 31 affidavit is signed and that the foregoing statement made by me on 32 (insert day, month and year) is a truthful disclosure of the reasons for 33 my belief that the registered voter therein named is not qualified to 34 vote in the election district in which he or she is now registered." If 35 the affiant shall take and sign such oath, an inspector shall sign his 36 or her name as a witness below the affiant's subscription to such oath.

37 An inspector may request state-issued identification to affirm the iden-
38 tity of the challenger. Each challenge affidavit shall only challenge 39 the qualifications of one voter.

40 2. The boards of elections shall make challenge affidavit forms avail-
41 able to all qualified voters.
