

STATE OF NEW YORK

3124

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 27, 2021

Introduced by Sen. KAVANAGH -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four and the emergency housing rent control law, in relation to requiring the division of housing and community renewal to, within six months of each New York city housing and vacancy survey, publish an updated schedule of rent adjustments for all rent-stabilized units converted from master utility metering to individual utility metering

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision c of section 26-511 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new paragraph 15 to read as follows:

(15) provides that owners of buildings which are master metered for electricity and have rent inclusion of electricity may file applications to terminate the rent inclusion of electricity for the accommodations subject to this section.

(a) The division of housing and community renewal shall formulate and publish a schedule of rent adjustments or update the schedule of adjustments within six months of the publication of a new housing and vacancy survey by the United States Census Bureau. The schedule or updated schedule of rent adjustments shall be based on the new survey data as tabulated by the New York city rent guidelines board, governing the rate by which the rent of regulated housing accommodations shall be adjusted upon and after conversion to individual metering at the building by means of either direct metering or submetering. The division of housing and community renewal shall promulgate an operational bulletin and/or modify or amend its regulations as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this paragraph.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

(b) The New York city rent guidelines board shall provide staff and assistance to the division of housing and community renewal, by tabulating the data of the triennial New York city housing and vacancy survey produced by the United States Census Bureau within ninety days of publication and providing the division of housing and community renewal the data necessary to promulgate a schedule of rent adjustments.

(c) The schedule of rent reductions shall apply to all rent stabilized accommodation units in a building that converts from master utility metering to individual utility metering by means of either direct metering or submetering, and shall take effect during the year in which the metering in the building is converted and continue each year thereafter.

(d) After the conversion, all tenants shall be responsible for their own electric consumption except those who, on the date of conversion, are receiving a senior citizen rent increase exemption or a disability rent increase exemption pursuant to section 26-509 of this chapter. For such tenants the rent shall not be reduced and the cost of electricity shall remain included in the rent; however, the owner may install any equipment in such tenant's housing accommodation as is required for effectuation of the electrical conversion. If such tenant no longer receives such benefit or vacates the housing accommodation, the owner shall reduce the legal regulated rent for the housing accommodation in accordance with the then-current schedule of rent reductions as promulgated by the division of housing and community renewal.

(e) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to permit shared metering.

§ 2. Section 26-405 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision n to read as follows:

n. Schedule of rent reductions; individual electric metering. Owners of buildings which are master metered for electricity and have rent inclusion of electricity may file applications to terminate the rent inclusion of electricity for the accommodations subject to this section.

(1) The city rent agency shall formulate and publish a schedule of rent adjustments or update the schedule of adjustments within six months of the publication of a new housing and vacancy survey by the United States Census Bureau. The schedule or updated schedule of rent adjustments shall be based on the new survey data as tabulated by the New York city rent guidelines board, governing the rate by which the rent of regulated housing accommodations shall be adjusted upon and after conversion to individual metering at the building by means of either direct metering or submetering. The city rent agency shall promulgate an operational bulletin and/or modify or amend its regulations as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this subdivision.

(2) The New York city rent guidelines board shall provide staff and assistance to the city rent agency, by tabulating the data of the triennial New York city housing and vacancy survey produced by the United States Census Bureau within ninety days of publication and providing the city rent agency the data necessary to promulgate a schedule of rent adjustments.

(3) The schedule of rent reductions shall apply to all rent controlled accommodation units in a building that converts from master utility metering to individual utility metering by means of either direct metering or submetering, and shall take effect during the year in which the metering in the building is converted and continue each year thereafter.

(4) After the conversion, all tenants shall be responsible for their own electric consumption except those who, on the date of conversion, are receiving a senior citizen rent increase exemption or a disability rent increase exemption pursuant to section 26-406 of this chapter. For such tenants the rent shall not be reduced and the cost of electricity shall remain included in the rent; however, the owner may install any equipment in such tenant's housing accommodation as is required for effectuation of the electrical conversion. If such tenant no longer receives such benefit or vacates the housing accommodation, the owner shall reduce the maximum rent for the housing accommodation in accordance with the then-current schedule of rent reductions as promulgated by the city rent agency.

(5) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to permit shared metering.

§ 3. Subdivision d of section 6 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, is amended by adding a new paragraph 6 to read as follows:

(6) owners of buildings which are master metered for electricity and have rent inclusion of electricity may file applications to terminate the rent inclusion of electricity for the accommodations subject to this section.

(i) The division of housing and community renewal shall formulate and publish a schedule of rent adjustments or update the schedule of adjustments within six months of the publication of a new housing and vacancy survey by the United States Census Bureau. The schedule or updated schedule of rent adjustments shall be based on the new survey data as tabulated by the New York city rent guidelines board, governing the rate by which the rent of regulated housing accommodations shall be adjusted upon and after conversion to individual metering at the building by means of either direct metering or submetering. The division of housing and community renewal shall promulgate an operational bulletin and/or modify or amend its regulations as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this paragraph.

(ii) The New York city rent guidelines board shall provide staff and assistance to the division of housing and community renewal, by tabulating the data of the triennial New York city housing and vacancy survey produced by the United States Census Bureau within ninety days of publication and providing the division of housing and community renewal the data necessary to promulgate a schedule of rent adjustments.

(iii) The schedule of rent reductions shall apply to all rent stabilized accommodation units in a building that converts from master utility metering to individual utility metering by means of either direct metering or submetering, and shall take effect during the year in which the metering in the building is converted and continue each year thereafter.

(iv) After the conversion, all tenants shall be responsible for their own electric consumption except those who, on the date of conversion, are receiving a senior citizen rent increase exemption or a disability rent increase exemption pursuant to a local law, ordinance or resolution as authorized by section 467-b of the real property tax law. For such tenants the rent shall not be reduced and the cost of electricity shall remain included in the rent; however, the owner may install any equipment in such tenant's housing accommodation as is required for effectuation of the electrical conversion. If such tenant no longer receives such benefit or vacates the housing accommodation, the owner shall reduce the legal regulated rent for the housing accommodation in accordance with the then-current schedule of rent reductions as promulgated by the division of housing and community renewal.

1 (v) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to permit shared
2 metering.

3 § 4. Section 4 of chapter 274 of the laws of 1946, constituting the 4 emergency housing rent control law, is amended by adding a new subdivi-
5 sion 10 to read as follows:

6 10. Owners of buildings which are master metered for electricity and 7 have rent inclusion of electricity may file applications to terminate
8 the rent inclusion of electricity for the accommodations subject to this 9 section.

10 (1) The division of housing and community renewal shall formulate and 11 publish a schedule of rent adjustments or update the schedule of adjust-
12 ments within six months of the publication of a new housing and vacancy
13 survey by the United States Census Bureau. The schedule or updated sche-
14 dule of rent adjustments shall be based on the new survey data as tabu-
15 lated by the New York city rent guidelines board, governing the rate by 16 which the rent of regulated housing accommodations shall be adjusted
17 upon and after conversion to individual metering at the building by 18 means of either direct metering or submetering. The division of housing 19 and community renewal shall promulgate an operational bulletin and/or 20 modify or amend its regulations as may be necessary to give effect to 21 the provisions of this subdivision.

22 (2) The New York city rent guidelines board shall provide staff and
23 assistance to the division of housing and community renewal, by tabulat-
24 ing the data of the triennial New York city housing and vacancy survey
25 produced by the United States Census Bureau within ninety days of publi-26 cation and providing the division of housing and community renewal the 27 data necessary to promulgate a schedule of rent adjustments.

28 (3) The schedule of rent reductions shall apply to all rent controlled
29 accommodation units in a building that converts from master utility
30 metering to individual utility metering by means of either direct meter-
31 ing or submetering, and shall take effect during the year in which the 32 metering in the building is converted and continue each year thereafter.

33 (4) After the conversion, all tenants shall be responsible for their 34 own electric consumption except those who, on the date of conversion,
35 are receiving a senior citizen rent increase exemption or a disability
36 rent increase exemption pursuant to a local law, ordinance or resolution
37 as authorized by section 467-b of the real property tax law. For such 38 tenants the rent shall not be reduced and the cost of electricity shall 39 remain included in the rent; however, the owner may install any equip-
40 ment in such tenant's housing accommodation as is required for effectua-
41 tion of the electrical conversion. If such tenant no longer receives 42 such benefit or vacates the housing accommodation, the owner shall 43 reduce the maximum rent for the housing accommodation in accordance with 44 the then-current schedule of rent reductions as promulgated by the divi-
45 sion of housing and community renewal.

46 (5) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to permit shared
47 metering.

48 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that:

49 a. sections one, two, three and four of this act shall take effect on 50 the first of January next succeeding the date upon which it shall have 51 become a law, and shall apply to all fiscal years commencing on or after 52 such date;

53 b. the amendments to section 26-511 of the rent stabilization law of 54 nineteen hundred sixty-nine made by section one of this act shall expire
55 on the same date as such law expires and shall not affect the expiration 56 of such law as provided under section 26-520 of such law; and

1 c. the amendments to section 26-405 of the city rent and rehabili-
2 tation law made by section two of this act shall remain in full force
3 and effect only as long as the public emergency requiring the regulation
4 and control of residential rents and evictions continues, as provided in
5 subdivision 3 of section 1 of the local emergency housing rent control
6 act.
