(a) [Grand] (i) Except as otherwise provided by law, grand jury proceedings are secret, and no grand juror, or other person specified in subdivision three of this section or section 215.70 of the penal law, may, except in the lawful discharge of his duties or upon written order 8 of the court, disclose the nature or substance of any grand jury testimony, evidence, or any decision, result or other matter attending a 10 grand jury proceeding. For the purpose of assisting the grand jury in 11 conducting its investigation, evidence obtained by a grand jury may be 12 independently examined by the district attorney, members of his staff, 13 police officers specifically assigned to the investigation, and such other persons as the court may specifically authorize. Such evidence may not be disclosed to other persons without a court order. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit a witness from disclosing his own testi-

1 concluded without an indictment, any person may file a written petition seeking the release of material concerning or related to the grand jury proceeding, including but not limited to transcripts, reports, exhibits, or material of any nature or substance of any grand jury testimony, evidence or any decision, result or any other matter which occurred during a grand jury proceeding upon the basis of enduring historical importance. Enduring historical importance shall be a rebuttable 7 presumption in cases where a petitioner is seeking release of grand jury 9 records fifty years or older on the basis of a proceeding's enduring historical importance. For the purposes of this paragraph the term 10 "enduring historical importance" shall mean a matter where the release 11 12 of a grand jury proceeding would enhance the existing historical record, foster further scholarly discussion, and improve the public's 13 understanding of a significant historical event. In all such cases, 14 upon a finding of enduring historical importance a court shall release 15 16 such grand jury records in a manner and form as determined by the court. 17 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
