AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to requiring the department of agriculture and markets to maintain a publicly available database of the results of its graded inspections on its website

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 500 of the agriculture and markets law is amended
2 by adding three new subdivisions 6, 7 and 8 to read as follows:

3 6. The department shall maintain a publicly available database of the 4 results of its graded inspections that shall include the retail food 5 store's name, address, date of inspection, grade and a list of any 6 violations cited within ninety days of a graded inspection. The depart-
7 ment shall update the database every ninety days. The department shall 8 make the inspection database available on their website, in a conspicu-9 ous location, including on any navigation or drop-down menu.

10 7. The department shall provide on their website information as to 11 where a customer may file a consumer report, which shall be placed in a 12 conspicuous location, including on any navigation or drop-down menu. If 13 a consumer report is filed with the department regarding a retail food 14 store, the graded inspection report provided to such retail food store
15 shall note that the store was reported by a consumer. The consumer 16 report and any other identifiable information of the consumer shall not 17 be included within the inspection report.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1     8. The department shall facilitate and coordinate the planning and 2 implementation of an awareness and educational program to inform the 3 general public on the standards retail food stores shall meet and how 4 consumers may report retail food stores with poor sanitary conditions.
5 Such program shall include grading inspection posting requirements, the 6 differences of sanitation between the inspection grades, and how to 7 report a retail food store to the department. Such program shall promote 8 educational and informational materials created, through available
9 means, such as media advertising, billboards, printed literature, social 10 media and the department's official website.

11     § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
