AN ACT to amend the private housing finance law, in relation to affordable housing corporation grants

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 1112 of the private housing finance law, as amended by chapter 64 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:

1. Within the limit of funds available in the affordable housing development account, the corporation is hereby authorized to enter into 5 contracts with eligible applicants to provide grants which such appli-7 cants shall use to finance affordable home ownership development programs subject to the terms and conditions of this article. Any grants received by a municipality hereunder shall not be deemed to be municipal 10 funds. Grantees shall utilize funds provided pursuant to this article 11 solely as payments, grants and loans to owners to reduce the costs of 12 new construction, rehabilitation or home improvement or the cost of acquisition, but only where such acquisition is part of an affordable 14 home ownership development program or project to construct or rehabilitate homes, or as otherwise authorized by law. Such financial assistance 15 may be in the form of loans, participation in loans including but not 16 limited to participation in loans originated or financed by lending 17 18 institutions as defined in section forty-two of this chapter, private or 19 public employee pension funds or the state of New York mortgage agency, 20 or grants, on such terms and conditions as the grantee with the approval the corporation shall determine, provided that no such payments, 22 grants and loans shall exceed the lesser of (i) sixty percent of the

1 project cost for projects involving acquisition or one hundred percent of rehabilitation programs without an acquisition component or (ii) the following per dwelling unit limitations (A) [thirty-five] fifty thousand 3 dollars for projects except as provided in [item] subparagraph (B) of this [clause] paragraph or (B) [forty] up to seventy-five thousand dollars for a high cost project or a project which will receive a loan 7 from the federal farmers home administration. Up to ten percent of the program or project cost may be used for grantee operating expenses 9 including expenses related to the organization operating support and 10 administration of the contract. Among the criteria the corporation shall 11 consider in determining whether a project is a high cost project are: average cost of construction in the area, location of the project, and 12 13 the impact of the additional funding on the affordability of the project 14 for the occupants of such project. No more than fifty percent of the 15 total amount appropriated pursuant to this article in any fiscal year 16 shall be allocated to homes located within any single municipality. 17

- § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 1112 of the private housing finance law is amended by adding a new paragraph (j) to read as follows:
- (j) In the case of projects that receive an award of over forty thousand dollars, the grantee may establish resale restrictions requiring the sale of the unit or units receiving such funding through a grant from the corporation be purchased only by qualified low-income homebuyers extending for a period of at least sixty years, but no more than ninety-nine years, and the grantee may ensure this resale restriction by use of deed restrictions, community land trusts, or limited-equity cooperative ownership structure.
- § 3. Section 1112 of the private housing finance law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3-a to read as follows:
- 3-a. In determining awards pursuant to this article, the corporation shall establish tiered project funding levels based on length and depth of affordability.
- § 4. Projects in pre-development that have already received commitments from the corporation prior to the effective date of this act shall be granted the opportunity to request additional capital under the law after the effective date of this act.
- § 5. This act shall take effect on the two hundred fortieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the commissioner of homes and community renewal is authorized to take such actions which are necessary for the implementation of this act, including the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation, on or before such effective date.
