1 § 4. Section 752 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 284 of 2 the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 752. Unfair discrimination against persons previously convicted of 4 one or more criminal offenses prohibited. No application for any license 5 or employment, and no employment or license held by an individual, to 6 which the provisions of this article are applicable, shall be denied or 7 acted upon adversely by reason of the [~~individual's~~] individual being 8 convicted of one or more criminal offenses or having been previously 9 convicted of one or more criminal offenses, or by reason of a finding of 10 lack of "good moral character" when such finding is based upon the fact 11 that the individual has previously been convicted of one or more crimi-12 nal offenses, unless:

13 (1) there is a direct relationship between one or more of the previous 14 criminal offenses and the specific license or employment sought or held 15 by the individual; or

16 (2) the issuance or continuation of the license or the granting or 17 continuation of the employment would involve an unreasonable risk to 18 property or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the 19 general public.

20 § 5. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 752-a to 21 read as follows:

22 § 752-a. Conviction while employed or licensed. 1. Except where 23 continued licensure or employment is prohibited by law, no person who 24 holds a license or who is employed by any public or private employer 25 shall have such license revoked or shall be denied continuation or 26 resumption of such employment by reason of such individual having been 27 convicted of one or more criminal offenses, or by reason of a finding of 28 a lack of good moral character, when such finding is based upon the fact 29 that such individual has been convicted of one or more criminal 30 offenses, unless:

31 (a) there is a direct relationship between one or more of the criminal 32 offenses and the specific license or employment held by such individual; 33 or

34 (b) continuation of the license or the continuation or resumption of 35 such employment would involve an unreasonable risk to property or to the 36 safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public.

37 2. As used in this section, the term "convicted" shall mean a 38 conviction for a crime other than a class B violent felony as defined in 39 the penal law, or a class A or class A-II felony as defined in the penal 40 law, other than a class A or class A-II felony as defined in article two 41 hundred twenty of the penal law, or an offense in another jurisdiction 42 which includes all of the essential elements of any such crime.

43 § 6. Subdivision 1 of section 753 of the correction law, as added by 44 chapter 931 of the laws of 1976, paragraph (b) as amended by chapter 284
45 of the laws of 2007, is amended and a new subdivision 3 is added to read 46 as follows:

47 1. In making a determination pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-48 two or section seven hundred fifty-two-a of this [~~chapter~~] article, the 49 public agency or private employer shall consider the following factors:

50 (a) The public policy of this state, as expressed in this act, to 51 encourage the licensure and employment of persons previously convicted 52 of one or more criminal offenses.

53 (b) The specific duties and responsibilities necessarily related to 54 the license or employment sought or held by the person.

1 (c) The bearing, if any, the criminal offense or offenses for which 2 the person was previously convicted will have on his or her fitness or 3 ability to perform one or more such duties or responsibilities.

4 (d) The time which has elapsed since the occurrence of the criminal
5 offense or offenses.

6 (e) The age of the person at the time of occurrence of the criminal
7 offense or offenses.

8 (f) The seriousness of the offense or offenses.

9 (g) Any information produced by the person, or produced on his or her 10 behalf, including in regard to his or her rehabilitation and good 11 conduct.

12 (h) The legitimate interest of the public agency or private employer
13 in protecting property, and the safety and welfare of specific individ-14 uals or the general public.

15 3. Except where continued licensure or employment of such person is 16 prohibited by law under such circumstances, each public agency and 17 private business entity and corporation shall adopt a policy that 18 requires the public agency or private business entity or corporation 19 to provide such convicted person with an opportunity to submit an expla-20 nation of the facts surrounding the offense and conviction and any 21 other information such person deems relevant to the issue, prior to 22 making a determination pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-two or 23 seven hundred fifty-two-a of this article. Nothing in this subdivi-
24 sion shall prohibit a public agency, private business entity or corpo-25 ration duly authorized to conduct business in this state from imposing 26 sanctions upon a person convicted of a crime in accordance with the 27 regulations, policies and practices of the public agency or private 28 employer.

29 § 7. The general obligations law is amended by adding a new section 30 5-338 to read as follows:

31 § 5-338. Agreements concerning termination due to conviction. 1.
32 Termination. Except where continuation of such commercial activities are 33 prohibited by law under such circumstances, every covenant, agreement or 34 understanding between a governmental entity, private business entity or 35 corporation and a person or persons enabling such person or persons to 36 carry out specified commercial activities, which includes a clause 37 requiring the automatic termination of the covenant, agreement or under-38 standing upon a conviction of such person or persons shall be deemed to 39 be void as against public policy and wholly unenforceable.

40 2. Explanation. Except where continuation of such covenants, agree-41 ments or understandings are prohibited by law under such circumstances, 42 all covenants, agreements or understandings between a governmental 43 entity, private business entity or corporation and a person or persons 44 enabling such person or persons to carry out specified commercial 45 activities shall include and extend to such person or persons the right 46 to an opportunity to submit an explanation of the facts surrounding any 47 conviction or alleged offense as well as any other information the party 48 deems relevant to the conviction or alleged offense prior to any party 49 terminating a business contract or contract of employment due to 50 a conviction or alleged offense.

51 3. Sanctions. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a governmental 52 entity, private business entity or corporation from imposing sanc-53 tions upon a person or persons convicted of a crime in accordance 54 with the regulations, policies and practices of the governmental enti-
55 ty, private business entity or corporation. Unless otherwise authorized

1 by law, such sanctions shall not be of a duration that would in effect
2 terminate the viability of the affiliated business.

3 4. Comparability. If a review of the facts shall find that in the 4 history of the existence of the private business entity or corporation, 5 a person or persons holding a similar license or agreement to do busi-6 ness in the name of the private business entity or corporation, who 7 while holding such license or prior to being granted such license, was 8 convicted of a felony or any offense for which the private business 9 entity or corporation could have claimed and exercised the right to 10 terminate the business relationship or permit to act under the name of 11 the private business entity or corporation, but such private business 12 entity or corporation, in exercise of its discretion, allowed such 13 person or persons to acquire or continue to hold and exercise such 14 license and authority to do business, and the private business entity 15 or corporation took no action to terminate such agreement, and the 16 private business entity or corporation determined not to provide an 17 extension of forgiveness and a second chance, the private business enti-
18 ty or corporation shall state why it determined not to grant such second 19 chance to such person and the burden of proof shall be on such private 20 business entity or corporation to demonstrate with substantive and 21 convincing proof how such extension of forgiveness and a second chance 22 would be detrimental to the interest of the private business entity or 23 corporation.

24 § 8. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new section 79-q to 25 read as follows:

26 § 79-q. Right to a reasonable review of facts and a reasonable consid-27 eration for the extension of forgiveness and a second chance. Except 28 where continuation of such contract is prohibited by law under such 29 circumstances, no governmental entity, private business entity or corpo-30 ration shall terminate, cancel or refuse to renew any contract based on 31 an individual being convicted of one or more criminal offenses without 32 such individual being given an opportunity to submit an explanation of 33 the facts surrounding any conviction or alleged offense as well as any 34 other information the individual deems relevant to the conviction or 35 alleged offense and provided a reasonable review of the facts and a 36 reasonable consideration for the extension of forgiveness and a second 37 chance.

38 § 9. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 39 have become a law.
