- 1 (e) appropriate class sizes;
- 2 (f) sufficient and up-to-date books, supplies, libraries, educational
- 3 technology, and laboratories;
- 4 (g) a safe and orderly environment; and
- 5 (h) adequate and accessible school buildings.

6 § 3352. Reporting by school employees and school boards. 1. Beginning 7 in the two thousand twenty-two--two thousand twenty-three school year,
8 the board of education or trustees, as defined in section two of this 9 chapter, of every school district within the state, however created and 10 the chancellor of the city school district of the city of New York shall 11 establish a program engaging teachers, support staff, parents and, at 12 the high school level, student leaders in an annual school level self-13 assessment of each school's ability to follow and meet the rules and 14 regulations promulgated pursuant to section thirty-three hundred fifty-
15 one of this article. The department shall develop and issue, policies 16 and procedures for such annual assessment.

17 2. (a) The board of education or trustees of each school district, or 18 the chancellor of the city school district of the city of New York, as 19 applicable, shall examine any data and make inspections to validate the 20 findings of the annual school level assessments made pursuant to subdi-21 vision one of this section. Such examination shall include an audit of 22 the adequacy of a district's own resources and capacity to meet the 23 needs of each school located in such district in regard to complying 24 with the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to section thirty-25 three hundred fifty-one of this article.

26 (b) The findings of such examination shall be compiled into a report 27 which shall be filed with the department and posted conspicuously on the 28 website for the department and each school district. In the event an 29 examination finds resource gaps at the school or district level, such 30 report shall additionally include proposed remedies both that can be 31 carried out with the district's available resources and an explanation
32 of resource gaps that may be remedied through additional state aid.

33 3. (a) A school employee shall, no more than sixty days after learning
34 of a school's noncompliance with the rules and regulations promulgated 35 pursuant to section thirty-three hundred fifty-one of this article,
36 either through the annual assessment process pursuant to subdivision one 37 of this section or at any other time, document such noncompliance in 38 writing and file a report with the board of education or trustees of 39 such school district or the chancellor of the city school district of 40 the city of New York, as applicable.

41 (b) Within thirty days of receiving a report of noncompliance pursuant 42 to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the board of education or trustees 43 of such school district or the chancellor of the city school district of 44 the city of New York, as applicable, shall ensure that:

45 (i) written notification is issued to the parent or guardian of any 46 student affected by such noncompliance. Such written notification shall 47 be provided in English and translated as necessary into the primary 48 language of such parent or guardian; and

49 (ii) the board of education or trustees of such school district or the 50 chancellor of the city school district of the city of New York, as 51 applicable, submits the findings of noncompliance to the department's 52 office of accountability.

53 4. The department shall review, store and organize all noncompliance
54 reports submitted pursuant to subdivisions two and three of this section 55 in a publicly accessible database.

1 5. The department's office of accountability shall develop and issue
2 recommendations to a board of education or trustees of a school district
3 or the chancellor of the city school district of the city of New York, 4 as applicable, of a noncompliant school to bring such school into 5 compliance with the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to 6 section thirty-three hundred fifty-one of this article.

7 § 3353. Educational rights publication for parents and students. 1.
8 The department shall promulgate a parent and student friendly publica-9 tion detailing the resource related educational rights of students with-10 in the state. Such publication shall include, but is not limited to, 11 information regarding a student's right to:

12 (a) sufficient numbers of qualified teachers, principals, and other
13 personnel;

14 (b) suitable and up-to-date curricula;

15 (c) support for students who are not meeting, or at risk of not meet-16 ing, any state learning standards in a core academic subject, including 17 English language arts, math, science and social studies;

18 (d) adequate resources for students with disabilities and English-lan-
19 guage learners;

20 (e) appropriate class sizes;

21 (f) sufficient and up-to-date books, supplies, libraries, educational
22 technology, and laboratories;

23 (g) a safe and orderly environment; and

24 (h) adequate and accessible school buildings.

25 Such publication shall additionally include a phone number and an 26 email address to the appropriate department office to accommodate ques-27 tions or complaints from parents or guardians of students regarding 28 resource related educational rights.

29 2. The department shall conspicuously post and maintain the publica-
30 tion required pursuant to subdivision one of this section on the website 31 of the department and require that every school district within the 32 state do the same on their respective sites. The department shall also 33 require every school district within the state to provide a parent or 34 guardian of a student in such district with a hard copy of such publica-
35 tion upon the initial release of the publication, at the start of each 36 academic year, to a parent or guardian of a student when such student is 37 enrolled in a new school and to a parent or guardian upon the request of 38 such parent or guardian. Such publication shall be made available in 39 English and the nine most common languages other than English spoken by 40 parents or guardians of New York state school children as determined by 41 the department.

42 § 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2022. Effective immediately, 43 the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation neces-44 sary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are 45 authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
