receiving a merit termination of sentence be financially able to comply with an order of restitution; and to amend the executive law, in relation to eliminating the requirement that a person receiving a discharge of sentence be financially able to comply with an order of restitution and the payment of certain surcharges or fees (Part G); and in relation to vacating all existing unpaid surcharges, DNA data-bank fees, crime victim assistance fees, sexual offender registration fees, or supplemental sex offender victim fees; and to repeal subdivision 3 of section 420.30 of the criminal procedure law relating to restrictions on remitting such fees (Part H)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act enacts into law major components of legislation 2 relating to ending the unfair financial burdens imposed on defendants in 3 criminal, vehicle and traffic, or other types of criminal or quasi-crim-4 inal matters by the existence of mandatory court surcharges and fees, 5 mandatory minimum fines and mandatory probation or parole fees. This act 6 further enacts into law procedures by which courts would be required to 7 engage in an individualized assessment of a person's financial ability 8 to pay a fine prior to imposing a fine, eliminates the availability of 9 incarceration as a remedy for a failure to pay a fine, and vacates all 10 existing warrants or unsatisfied civil judgments issued solely based on 11 a person's failure to timely pay a fine, surcharge, or fee. Each compo-12 nent is wholly contained within a Part identified as Parts A through H.
13 The effective date for each particular provision contained within such 14 Part is set forth in the last section of such Part. Any provision in any 15 section contained within a Part, including the effective date of the 16 Part, which makes reference to a section "of this act", when used in 17 connection with that particular component, shall be deemed to mean and 18 refer to the corresponding section of the Part in which it is found.
19 Section four of this act sets forth the general effective date of this 20 act.

21 § 2. Legislative intent. The legislative intent of this act is to end 22 the inequitable financial burdens placed on defendants by the previously 23 enacted statutory provisions which have authorized or mandated the impo-24 sition of surcharges, fees, and/or mandatory minimum fines, which have 25 had a disparate impact on poor defendants, people of color, and those 26 who lack access to the significant financial resources necessary in 27 order to satisfy the imposition of surcharges, fees, and fines, and 28 which have also contributed to mass incarceration in New York state. The 29 legislative intent is also to end New York's regressive reliance on 30 generating governmental revenue by imposing surcharges, fees, and fines 31 on those least able to pay.

6 1999, subparagraph (i) of paragraph 1 and paragraph 3 as amended by 7 section 51 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is 8 amended to read as follows:

9 (f) Fees for inmates. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to 10 the contrary, a federal, state or local inmate under sentence for 11 conviction of a crime may seek to commence his or her action or proceed-12 ing by paying a reduced filing fee as provided in paragraph two of this 13 subdivision. Such inmate shall file the form affidavit referred to in 14 subdivision (d) of this section along with the summons and complaint or 15 summons with notice or third-party summons and complaint or petition or 16 notice of petition or order to show cause. As part of such application, 17 the inmate shall indicate the name and mailing address of the facility 18 at which he or she is confined along with the name and mailing address 19 of any other federal, state or local facility at which he or she was 20 confined during the preceding six month period. The case will be given 21 an index number if applicable, or, in courts other than the supreme or 22 county courts, any necessary filing number and the application will be 23 submitted to a judge of the court. Upon receipt of the application, the 24 court shall obtain from the appropriate official of the facility at 25 which the inmate is confined a certified copy of the inmate's trust fund 26 account statement (or institutional equivalent) for the six month period 27 preceding filing of the inmate's application. If the inmate has been 28 confined for less than six months at such facility, the court shall 29 obtain additional information as follows:

30 (i) in the case of a state inmate who has been transferred from another 31 state correctional facility, the court shall obtain a trust fund 32 account statement for the six month period from the central office of 33 the department of corrections and community supervision in Albany; or 34 (ii) in the case of a state inmate who is newly transferred from a 35 federal or local correctional facility, the court shall obtain any trust 36 fund account statement currently available from such facility. The court 37 may, in its discretion, seek further information from the prior or 38 current facility.

39 2. If the court determines that the inmate has insufficient means to 40 pay the full filing fee, the court may permit the inmate to pay a 41 reduced filing fee, the minimum of which shall not be less than fifteen 42 dollars and the maximum of which shall not be more than fifty dollars.
43 The court shall require an initial payment of such portion of the 44 reduced filing fee as the inmate can reasonably afford or shall author-45 ize no initial payment of the fee if exceptional circumstances render 46 the inmate unable to pay any fee; provided however, that the difference 47 between the amount of the reduced filing fee and the amount paid by the 48 inmate in the initial partial payment shall be assessed against the 49 inmate as an outstanding obligation to be collected either by the super-50 intendent or the municipal official of the facility at which the inmate 51 is confined, as the case may be[~~, in the same manner that mandatory~~ 52 ~~surcharges are collected as provided for in subdivision five of section~~ 53 ~~60.35 of the penal law]. The court shall notify the superintendent or~~ 54 the municipal official of the facility where the inmate is housed of the 55 amount of the reduced filing fee that was not directed to be paid by the 56 inmate. Thereafter, the superintendent or the municipal official shall

1 forward to the court any fee obligations that have been collected, 2 provided however, that:

3 (i) in no event shall the filing fee collected exceed the amount of 4 fees required for the commencement of an action or proceeding; and 5 (ii) in no event shall an inmate be prohibited from proceeding for the 6 reason that the inmate has no assets and no means by which to pay the 7 initial partial filing fee.

8 3. The institution at which an inmate is confined, or the central 9 office for the department of corrections and community supervision, 10 whichever is applicable, shall promptly provide the trust fund account 11 statement to the inmate as required by this subdivision.

12 4. Whenever any federal, state or local inmate obtains a judgment in 13 connection with any action or proceeding which exceeds the amount of the 14 filing fee, paid in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision 15 for commencing such action or proceeding, the court shall award to the 16 prevailing inmate, as a taxable disbursement, the actual amount of any 17 fee paid to commence the action or proceeding.

18 5. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to a proceeding 19 commenced pursuant to article seventy-eight of this chapter which 20 alleges a failure to correctly award or certify jail time credit due an 21 inmate, in violation of section six hundred-a of the correction law and 22 section 70.30 of the penal law.

23 § 11. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 259-i of the executive 24 law, as amended by section 38-f-1 of subpart A of part C of chapter 62
25 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

26 (a) (i) Except as provided in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, at 27 least one month prior to the date on which an inmate may be paroled 28 pursuant to subdivision one of section 70.40 of the penal law, a member 29 or members as determined by the rules of the board shall personally 30 interview such inmate and determine whether he should be paroled in 31 accordance with the guidelines adopted pursuant to subdivision four of 32 section two hundred fifty-nine-c of this article. If parole is not 33 granted upon such review, the inmate shall be informed in writing within 34 two weeks of such appearance of the factors and reasons for such denial
35 of parole. Such reasons shall be given in detail and not in conclusory
36 terms. The board shall specify a date not more than twenty-four months 37 from such determination for reconsideration, and the procedures to be 38 followed upon reconsideration shall be the same. If the inmate is 39 released, he shall be given a copy of the conditions of parole. Such 40 conditions shall where appropriate, include a requirement that the paro-
41 lee comply with any restitution order[~~, mandatory surcharge, sex offen-~~
42 ~~der registration fee and DNA databank fee~~] previously imposed by a court 43 of competent jurisdiction that applies to the parolee. The conditions 44 shall indicate which restitution collection agency established under 45 subdivision eight of section 420.10 of the criminal procedure law, shall 46 be responsible for collection of restitution[~~, mandatory surcharge, sex~~ 47 ~~offender registration fees and DNA databank fees as provided for in~~ 48 ~~section 60.35 of the penal law and section eighteen hundred nine of the~~ 49 ~~vehicle and traffic law~~].

50 (ii) Any inmate who is scheduled for presumptive release pursuant to 51 section eight hundred six of the correction law shall not appear before 52 the board as provided in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph unless such 53 inmate's scheduled presumptive release is forfeited, canceled, or 54 rescinded subsequently as provided in such law. In such event, the 55 inmate shall appear before the board for release consideration as

1 provided in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph as soon thereafter as is 2 practicable.

4 law, as amended by section 38-f-2 of subpart A of part C of chapter 62
5 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

6 (a) At least one month prior to the expiration of the minimum period 7 or periods of imprisonment fixed by the court or board, a member or 8 members as determined by the rules of the board shall personally inter-9 view an inmate serving an indeterminate sentence and determine whether 10 he should be paroled at the expiration of the minimum period or periods 11 in accordance with the procedures adopted pursuant to subdivision four 12 of section two hundred fifty-nine-c of this article. If parole is not 13 granted upon such review, the inmate shall be informed in writing within 14 two weeks of such appearance of the factors and reasons for such denial
15 of parole. Such reasons shall be given in detail and not in conclusory
16 terms. The board shall specify a date not more than twenty-four months 17 from such determination for reconsideration, and the procedures to be 18 followed upon reconsideration shall be the same. If the inmate is 19 released, he shall be given a copy of the conditions of parole. Such 20 conditions shall where appropriate, include a requirement that the paro-21 lee comply with any restitution order [~~and mandatory surcharge~~] previ-22 ously imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction that applies to the 23 parolee. The conditions shall indicate which restitution collection 24 agency established under subdivision eight of section 420.10 of the 25 criminal procedure law, shall be responsible for collection of restitu-26 tion [~~and mandatory surcharge as provided for in section 60.35 of the~~

36 to an administrative fee, supervision fee, monitoring fee, testing fee, 37 or screening fee, to the local probation department with the responsi-

40 sections 65.10 and 60.27 of the penal law and subdivision eight of 41 section 420.10 of the criminal procedure law.

42 § 15. Subdivision 2 of section 205 of the correction law, as added by

44 amended to read as follows:

45 2. A merit termination granted by the department under this section 46 shall constitute a termination of the sentence with respect to which it 47 was granted. No such merit termination shall be granted unless the 48 department is satisfied that termination of sentence from presumptive 49 release, parole, conditional release or post-release supervision is in 50 the best interest of society[~~, and that the parolee or releasee, other-~~ 51 ~~wise financially able to comply with an order of restitution and the~~ 52 ~~payment of any mandatory surcharge previously imposed by a court of~~ 3 2011, is amended to read as follows:

4 1. Except where a determinate sentence was imposed for a felony other 6 two hundred twenty-one of the penal law, if the board of parole is 7 satisfied that an absolute discharge from presumptive release, parole, 8 conditional release or release to a period of post-release supervision 9 is in the best interests of society, the board may grant such a 10 discharge prior to the expiration of the full term or maximum term to 11 any person who has been on unrevoked community supervision for at least 12 three consecutive years. A discharge granted under this section shall 13 constitute a termination of the sentence with respect to which it was 14 granted. ~~[No such discharge shall be granted unless the board is satis-15 fied that the parolee or releasee, otherwise financially able to comply

5 5. Application for resentence. In any case where the defendant is 6 unable to pay a fine, restitution or reparation imposed by the court, he 7 may at any time apply to the court for resentence. In such case, if the 8 court is satisfied that the defendant is unable to pay the fine, resti-

 22 term of imprisonment, probation, or post-release supervision in excess 23 of any such term imposed by the original sentence.

 25 to any condition of the sentence relating to restitution or reparation 26 the court must order that notice of such application and a reasonable 27 opportunity to be heard be given to the person or persons given notice 28 pursuant to subdivision one of this section. If the court grants the 29 defendant's application by changing the original order for restitution 30 or reparation in any manner, the court must place the reasons therefor 31 on the record.

32 [~~For the purposes of this subdivision, the court shall not determine~~ 33 ~~that the defendant is unable to pay the fine, restitution or reparation~~ 34 ~~ordered solely because of such defendant's incarceration but shall~~ 35 ~~consider all the defendant's sources of income including, but not limit-~~ 36 ~~ed to, moneys in the possession of an inmate at the time of his admis-~~
 37 ~~sion into such facility, funds earned by him in a work release program~~ 38 ~~as defined in subdivision four of section one hundred fifty of the~~ 39 ~~correction law, funds earned by him as provided for in section one~~ 40 ~~hundred eighty seven of the correction law and any other funds received~~ 41 ~~by him or on his behalf and deposited with the superintendent or the~~ 42 ~~municipal official of the facility where the person is confined.] In 48 the defendant's behalf and deposited with the superintendent or the
