AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to the valuation of life insurance policies and contracts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph 1 of subsection (a) of section 4217 of the insurance law, as amended by chapter 22 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

4 (1) The superintendent shall annually [value, or] cause every life 5 insurance company doing business in this state to [be valued,] value the reserve liabilities (hereinafter called reserves) for all its outstandб ing insurance policies and contracts [of every life insurance company doing business in this state], except that, in the case of an alien 7 8 9 company, such valuation shall be limited to its United States business [7 and may]. The superintendent shall certify the amount of any such 10 reserves, specifying the mortality table or tables, rate or rates of 11 interest and methods (net level premium method or other) used in the 12 calculation of such reserves, unless the superintendent determines that 13 14 the memorandum prepared pursuant to paragraph three of subsection (e) of 15 this section to support the actuarial opinion of reserves required by 16 paragraph one of subsection (e) of this section fails to meet the stand-17 ards prescribed by regulation. In calculating such reserves, [the superintendent] life insurance companies may use group methods and 18 approximate averages for fractions of a year or otherwise. 19 20 § 2. Paragraph 1 of subsection (e) of section 4217 of the insurance 21 law, as added by chapter 22 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as 22 follows:

(1) General. Every life insurance company doing business in this state shall annually submit the opinion of a qualified actuary as to whether the reserves and related actuarial items held in support of the policies and contracts specified by the superintendent by regulation are computed 1 appropriately, are based on assumptions which satisfy contractual 2 3 provisions, are consistent with prior reported amounts and comply with 4 applicable laws of this state. The superintendent [by regulation] shall 5 define the specifics of this opinion and add any other items deemed to б be necessary to its scope solely by regulation. 7 § 3. Subparagraph (C) of paragraph 4 of subsection (e) of section 4217 of the insurance law, as added by chapter 22 of the laws of 1994, is 8 9 amended to read as follows: 10 (C) The opinion shall be based on standards adopted from time to time 11 by the Actuarial Standards Board and on such additional standards as the superintendent may by regulation prescribe. The superintendent shall 12 13 not prescribe any assumptions or other additional standards to be used by the qualified actuary when forming the opinion beyond those 14 15 prescribed by regulation. 16 § 4. Paragraph 4 of subsection (f) of section 4217 of the insurance 17 law, as added by chapter 22 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as 18 follows: 19 (4) [Without the specific approval of the superintendent subject to 20 such conditions as he may prescribe and as provided by regulation, an 21 insurer shall not An insurer may aggregate the reserves referred to in 22 [two or more of paragraph] paragraphs one, two [or] and three of this subsection. [Such regulation may prescribe the conditions under which 23 the valuation of two or more classes of business of insurance or the 24 25 valuation of all of its insurance business to which this section applies 26 may be combined.] The superintendent may, solely by regulation, require 27 insurers to show the results of asset adequacy analysis as to the adequacy of reserves referred to in paragraphs one, two and three of 28 29 this subsection separately in the actuarial memorandum prepared pursuant to paragraph three of subsection (e) of this section, but may not 30 31 prohibit insurers from aggregating the reserves referred to in para-32 graphs one, two and three of this subsection for the purposes of meeting 33 the minimum standards for the valuation of life insurance policies,

34 annuities and guaranteed investment contracts, and individual and group 35 accident and health insurance policies.

36 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
