11 a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

12 (c) Any firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as 13 a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section

25 accountants,

26 (iii) at least fifty-one percent of the officers are certified public
27 accountants,

28 (iv) the president, the chairperson of the board of directors and the 29 chief executive officer or officers are certified public accountants.
30 No shareholder of a firm established for the business purpose of incor-

32 of section fifteen hundred three of this article shall enter into a 33 voting trust agreement, proxy or any other type of agreement vesting in 34 another person, other than another shareholder of the same corporation, 35 the authority to exercise voting power of any or all of his or her 36 shares. All shares issued, agreements made or proxies granted in 37 violation of this section shall be void.

38 § 3. Section 1508 of the business corporation law is amended by adding 39 a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

40 (c) The directors and officers of any firm established for the busi-
41 ness purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation
42 pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this arti-
43 cle may include individuals who are not licensed to practice public 44 accountancy, provided however that at least fifty-one percent of the 45 directors, at least fifty-one percent of the officers and the president, 46 the chairperson of the board of directors and the chief executive offi-47 cer or officers are authorized by law to practice in any state the 48 profession which such corporation is authorized to practice, and are 49 either shareholders of such corporation or engaged in the practice of 50 their professions in such corporation.

51 § 4. Section 1509 of the business corporation law, as amended by chap-
52 ter 550 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

53 § 1509. Disqualification of shareholders, directors, officers and 54 employees.

55 If any shareholder, director, officer or employee of a professional 56 service corporation, including a design professional service corporation, who has been rendering professional service to the public becomes legally disqualified to practice his or her profession within this state, he or she shall sever all employment with, and financial interests (other than interests as a creditor) in, such corporation forthwith or as otherwise provided in section 1510 of this article. All provisions of law regulating the rendering of professional services by a person elected or appointed to a public office shall be applicable to a shareholder, director, officer and employee of such corporation in the same manner and to the same extent as if fully set forth herein. Such legal disqualification to practice his or her profession within this state shall be deemed to constitute an irrevocable offer by the disqualified shareholder to sell his or her shares to the corporation, pursuant to the provisions of section 1510 of this article or of the certificate of incorporation, by-laws or agreement among the corporation and all shareholders, whichever is applicable. Compliance with the terms of such offer shall be specifically enforceable in the courts of this state. A professional service corporation's failure to enforce compliance with this provision shall constitute a ground for forfeiture of its certificate of incorporation and its dissolution.

§ 5. Paragraph (a) of section 1511 of the business corporation law, as amended by chapter 550 of the laws of 2011, is amended and a new paragraph (c) is added to read as follows:

(a) No shareholder of a professional service corporation [~~ex~~], including a design professional service corporation, may sell or transfer his or her shares in such corporation except to another individual who is eligible to have shares issued to him or her by such corporation or except in trust to another individual who would be eligible to receive shares if he or she were employed by the corporation. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the transfer of shares by operation of law or by court decree. No transferee of shares by operation of law or court decree may vote the shares for any purpose whatsoever except with respect to corporate action under sections 909 and 1001 of this chapter. The restriction in the preceding sentence shall not apply, however, where such transferee would be eligible to have shares issued to him or her if he or she were an employee of the corporation and, if there are other shareholders, a majority of such other shareholders shall fail to redeem the shares so transferred, pursuant to section 1510 of this article, within sixty days of receiving written notice of such transfer. Any sale or transfer, except by operation of law or court decree or except for a corporation having only one shareholder, may be made only after the same shall have been approved by the board of directors, or at a shareholders' meeting specially called for such purpose by such proportion, not less than a majority, of the outstanding shares as may be provided in the certificate of incorporation or in the by-laws of such professional service corporation. At such shareholders' meeting the shares held by the shareholder proposing to sell or transfer his or her shares may not be voted or counted for any purpose, unless all shareholders consent that such shares be voted or counted. The certificate of incorporation or the by-laws of the professional service corporation, or the professional service corporation and the shareholders by private agreement, may provide, in lieu of or in addition to the foregoing provisions, for the alienation of shares and may require the redemption or purchase of such shares by such corporation at prices and in a manner specifically set forth therein. The existence of the restrictions on the sale or transfer of shares, as contained in this article and, if applicable, in the certificate of incorporation, by-laws, stock purchase or

1 stock redemption agreement, shall be noted conspicuously on the face or 2 back of every certificate for shares issued by a professional service
3 corporation. Any sale or transfer in violation of such restrictions
4 shall be void.

5 (c) A firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a
6 professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section 7 fifteen hundred three of this article, shall purchase or redeem the 8 shares of a non-licensed professional shareholder in the case of his or 9 her termination of employment within thirty days after such termination.
10 A firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a
11 professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section 12 fifteen hundred three of this article, shall not be required to purchase 13 or redeem the shares of a terminated non-licensed professional share-14 holder if such shares, within thirty days after such termination, are 15 sold or transferred to another employee of the corporation pursuant to 16 this article.

17 § 6. Section 1514 of the business corporation law is amended by adding 18 a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

19 (c) Each firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as 20 a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section 21 fifteen hundred three of this article shall, at least once every three 22 years on or before the date prescribed by the licensing authority, 23 furnish a statement to the licensing authority listing the names and 24 residence addresses of each shareholder, director and officer of such 25 corporation and certify as the date of certification and at all times 26 over the entire three year period that:

32 fied public accountants,

33 (iv) the president, the chairperson of the board of directors and the
