AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to standards for food and beverages purchased, sold and marketed by state agencies

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Article 2 of the public health law is amended by adding a
2 new title 8 to read as follows:

TITLE 8

STATE FOOD STANDARDS

3 Section 269. Development of state food standards.

4 269-a. Applicability of state food standards.

5 269-b. Implementation of state food standards.

6 § 269. Development of state food standards. 1. Within three months
7 following the effective date of this section, the department, in consul-
8 tation with the office of general services, shall begin an assessment of 9 the food and beverage purchasing, service, sales, and marketing policies
10 and activities of each state agency. The department shall develop and 11 finalize state food standards considering the findings of such assess-
12 ment no later than twelve months following the effective date of this
13 section, for foods purchased, served, sold, and promoted by state agen-
14 cies, programs, and institutions and on state property. The department
15 shall report such standards to the state legislature, and disseminate
16 them to the heads of all state agencies that purchase, prepare, serve,
17 or promote food and beverages.

18 2. The state food standards developed under this section shall:
