PART B

Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 425 of the real property tax law, as amended by section 1 of part E of chapter 83 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Overview. There shall be two variations of the exemption authorized by this section: an exemption for property owned by persons who satisfy or a small business which satisfies the criteria set forth in subdivision three of this section, which shall be known as the "basic" STAR exemption, and an exemption for property owned by senior citizens who satisfy the criteria set forth in both subdivisions three and four of this section, which shall be known as the "enhanced" STAR exemption. The exempt amount for each assessing unit shall be determined annually as set forth in this subdivision, by multiplying the "base figure" by the locally-applicable "sales price differential factor," if any, multiplying the product by the appropriate "equalization factor" for the assessing unit, and, if necessary, increasing the result to equal the applicable "floor." The result is then rounded to the nearest multiple of ten dollars.

§ 2. Paragraphs (a), (b) and (b-1) of subdivision 3 of section 425 of the real property tax law, paragraph (a) as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2000, paragraph (b) as added by section 1 of part B of chapter 389 of the laws of 1997 and paragraph (b-1) as amended by section 1 of part RR of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, are amended and three new paragraphs (a-1), (a-2) and (b-2) are added to read as follows:

(a) Property use. To qualify for exemption pursuant to this section, the property must be a one, two or three family residence, a farm dwelling ~~[or]~~, residential property held in condominium or cooperative form of ownership or the primary place of business of a small business. If the property is not an eligible type of property, but a portion of the property is partially used by the owner as a primary residence, that portion which is so used shall be entitled to the exemption provided by this section; provided that in no event shall the exemption exceed the assessed value attributable to that portion.

(a-1) Small business. To qualify for an exemption pursuant to this section, a small business must be a business entity, other than a sole proprietorship, which employs not less than two employees, nor more than fifty employees at its primary place of business.

(a-2) Person. For the purposes of this section, "person" or "owner" shall include a small business.

(b) Primary residence. The property must serve as the primary residence of one or more of the owners thereof, or as the primary place of business of a small business.

(b-1) Income. For final assessment rolls to be used for the levy of taxes for the two thousand eleven-two thousand twelve through two thousand eighteen-two thousand nineteen school years, the parcel's affiliated income may be no greater than five hundred thousand dollars, as determined by the commissioner pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section or section one hundred seventy-one-u of the tax law, in order to be eligible for the basic exemption authorized by this section. Beginning with the two thousand nineteen-two thousand twenty school year, for purposes of the exemption authorized by this section, [the] a residential parcel's affiliated income may be no greater than two hundred fifty thousand dollars, as so determined. As used herein, the term "affiliated income" shall mean the combined income of all of the owners of the parcel who resided primarily thereon on the applicable taxable status date, and of any owners' spouses residing primarily thereon. For exemptions on final assessment rolls to be used for the levy of taxes for the two thousand eleven-two thousand twelve school year, affiliated income shall be determined based upon the parties' incomes for the income tax year ending in two thousand nine. In each subsequent school year, the applicable income tax year shall be advanced by one year. The term "income" as used herein shall have the same meaning as in subdivision four of this section.

(b-2) Primary place of business. For small businesses, the property shall be property at a single location within the state, upon which the small business carries on its business enterprise.

§ 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 5 of section 425 of the real property tax law, as amended by section 5 of part E of chapter 83 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Generally. Every school district shall notify, or cause to be notified, each person owning residential real property and each small business owning real property in the school district of the provisions of this section. The provisions of this subdivision may be met by a notice sent to such persons in substantially the following form: "Residential and small business real property may qualify for a partial exemption from school district taxes under the New York state school tax relief (STAR) program.
