AN ACT to amend the multiple dwelling law, in relation to authorizing any dwelling with a certificate authorizing occupancy as a Class B hotel to also authorize occupancy of such units in such dwelling for permanent residence purposes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 301 of the multiple dwelling law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

3 7. a. Any certificate by the department authorizing occupancy of a 4 dwelling as a Class B hotel shall also authorize occupancy of units in 5 such dwelling for permanent residence purposes notwithstanding any 6 provision of this chapter or of any state law, local law, ordinance,
7 resolution or regulation that would otherwise prohibit such occupancy, 8 require a change or alteration to the dwelling, or require a new or 9 amended certificate, provided that: (1) such occupancy for permanent 10 residence purposes shall be subject to the approval of the local housing 11 agency in its discretion; (2) a portion of such dwelling shall be 12 located within four hundred feet of a district that under the local 13 zoning regulations or ordinances permits residential uses and such 14 dwelling shall not be located in an industrial business zone established
15 pursuant to chapter six-D of title twenty-two of the administrative code 16 of the city of New York; (3) in the case of a property at which any 17 hotel workers are represented by a collective bargaining representative, 18 prior to the proposed conversion of such property to occupancy for 19 permanent residence purposes, the collective bargaining representative

1 shall be notified in writing of the proposed conversion, and the proper-2 ty owner shall certify prior to the local housing agency approving such 3 occupancy that the collective bargaining representative has mutually 4 agreed in a separate writing with the property owner to undertake the 5 specific conversion described in the written notice; and (4) such dwell-
6 ing shall meet the conditions in paragraph b of this subdivision. Alter-7 ations to the configuration of any such units shall be permitted and 8 shall comply with any applicable requirements of any state law, local 9 law, ordinance, resolution or regulation relating to Class B hotels. If 10 occupancy for permanent residence purposes is authorized under the 11 provisions of this subdivision within a district where the local zoning 12 regulations or ordinances would not otherwise permit such use, the resi-13 dential tenants shall be notified of the district's zoning.

14 b. Occupancy of units in a dwelling shall not be authorized under the 15 provisions of paragraph a of this subdivision unless such units are 16 purchased, acquired, or financed: (1) by the state pursuant to and in 17 compliance with the provisions of article thirty-one of the private 18 housing finance law; or (2) by a local housing agency, for the purpose 19 of creating supportive and/or affordable housing to be operated by an 20 appropriate nonprofit organization pursuant to a regulatory agreement or 21 contract with such local agency for low-income households or people 22 experiencing homelessness immediately prior to entering such housing, 23 where tenants shall pay no more than thirty percent of their income 24 toward rent and all units are rent stabilized and subject to permanent 25 affordability restrictions. For purposes of this paragraph, "appropriate 26 nonprofit organization", "affordable housing", "experiencing homeles-
27 ness", "rent stabilized", and "permanent affordability restrictions" 28 shall have the same meaning as defined in article thirty-one of the 29 private housing finance law.

30 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
