IN SENATE

February 23, 2021

Introduced by Sen. PERSAUD -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to flexible working arrangements for parents and legal guardians when day care centers and schools are closed during a state or local disaster emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

| 1  | Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 202-n to       |
|----|--|
| 2  | read as follows:   |
| 3  | § 202-n. Flexible working arrangements for parents and legal guardians     |
| 4  | during a state or local disaster emergency. 1. Definitions. For the        |
| 5  | purposes of this section:  |
| б  | (a) "School-aged child" shall mean a child or children enrolled in 3-k     |
| 7  | or pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade.                          |
| 8  | (b) "Day care-aged child" shall mean a child enrolled in a day care        |
| 9  | center.   |
| 10 | (c) "Parent" shall mean a biological, foster, or adoptive parent, a |
| 11 | legal guardian, or other person who stands in loco parentis to a school-   |
| 12 | aged child or children.  |
| 13 | (d) "Employer" shall mean all employers within the state.                  |
| 14 | (e) "Flexible working arrangement" shall mean short-term, intermedi-       |
| 15 | ate, or long-term changes in the employee's regular working arrange-       |
| 16 | ments, including but not limited to, changes in the number of days or      |
| 17 | hours worked, changes in the time the employee arrives at or departs       |
| 18 | from work, remote work, or job-sharing. "Flexible working arrangement"     |
| 19 | shall not include vacation, routine scheduling of shifts, or another       |
| 20 | form of employee leave.  |
| 21 | (f) "Inconsistent with business operations" shall mean a determination     |
| 22 | by the employer based on the following considerations: (i) the burden on   |
| 23 | an employer of undue additional costs; (ii) a legitimate or practical      |
| 24 | detrimental effect on aggregate employee morale unrelated to discrimi-     | nation or other unlawful employment practices; (iii) a legitimate or 1 practical detrimental effect on the ability of an employer to meet 2 3 consumer demand; (iv) a significant inability to reorganize work among 4 existing staff; (v) a legitimate or practical inability to recruit addi-5 tional staff; (vi) a significant detrimental impact on business quality б or business performance; (vii) an insufficiency of work during the peri-7 ods the employee proposes to work; (viii) planned structural changes to 8 the business; and (ix) any other reasons as specified by the commission-9 er. 10 2. Presumption of entitlement for parents and legal quardians to work 11 remotely when day care centers and schools are closed due to a state or local disaster emergency. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of 12 13 law to the contrary, an employee shall be entitled to work remotely where the essential functions of the employee's position can be 14 performed remotely and (i) the employee is the parent of a school-aged 15 16 child or day care-aged child or children; (ii) the school or day care 17 center attended by such school-aged child or day care-aged child or children has been closed pursuant to an order of a public official due 18 19 to a state or local disaster emergency, regardless of whether there will 20 be virtual or remote instruction or instruction has been suspended; and 21 (iii) the purpose of working remotely is to be able to supervise or otherwise provide care for such school-aged child or day care-aged child 22 23 or children. 24 (b) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that an employee can 25 perform work remotely if such employee has already performed work 26 remotely for two consecutive pay periods, or two weeks, whichever is 27 less time, in the current or immediately preceding calendar year. The presumption may be rebutted by evidence showing that the employee cannot 28 perform essential duties remotely. 29 30 (c) Where a significant portion, but not all, of the essential func-31 tions of the position in which the employee is employed can be performed 32 remotely, employers shall consider whether a similar arrangement or a 33 partial remote work arrangement may be granted in a manner that is not inconsistent with its business operations or legal or contractual obli-34 35 gations. 36 3. Right of parents and legal guardians to request flexible working 37 arrangements when day care centers or schools are closed due to a state or local disaster emergency. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of 38 law to the contrary, an employee may request a flexible working arrange-39 ment that meets the needs of both the employer and employee where: (i) 40 41 the employee is a parent of a school-aged or day care-aged child or 42 children; (ii) the school or day care center attended by such school-43 aged child or day care-aged child or children has been closed pursuant 44 to an order of a public official due to a state or local disaster emer-45 gency, regardless of whether there will be virtual or remote instruction 46 or instruction has been suspended; and (iii) the purpose of the flexible 47 working arrangement is to be able to supervise or otherwise provide care for such school-aged child or day care-aged child or children. 48 49 (b) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to require an employer to accept the flexible work arrangement requested by the 50 51 employee. 52 (c) The employer shall respond to the request for a flexible working 53 arrangement from the employee, and shall consider the employee's request 54 for a flexible working arrangement and whether the request or a similar arrangement could be granted in a manner that is not inconsistent with 55 56 its business operations or its legal or contractual obligations.

4. (a) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit an 1 2 employer from requiring an employee to request a remote work arrangement 3 or flexible working arrangement sufficiently in advance of when such 4 remote work or flexible working arrangement would commence. An employer 5 may establish reasonable standards to determine the time, place, and б manner in which the employee shall request a remote work or flexible 7 working arrangement pursuant to this section. 8 (b) An employer shall respond to the request for a remote work or 9 flexible working arrangement pursuant to this section in a reasonably 10 timely manner, but in no case shall such decision be provided later than 11 fourteen days from receipt of a request. If such request was submitted in writing, the employer shall state any complete or partial denial of 12 the request in writing, citing the reason as to denying such request. 13 14 5. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to diminish the rights, 15 privileges, or remedies of any employee under any collective bargaining 16 agreement. 17 6. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect any legal rights an employer or employee may have under applicable law to create, termi-18 19 nate, or modify a remote work or flexible working arrangement. 20 7. No employer or his or her agent, or the officer or agent of any 21 corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, or any other person, shall discharge, threaten, penalize, or in any other manner 22 discriminate or retaliate against any employee because such employee has 23 exercised his or her rights afforded under this section. 24 25 8. (a) The commissioner may bring an action against an employer for 26 failure to adhere to the provisions of this section, including injunc-27 tive relief to enjoin future conduct. 28 (b) Any employer who violates the provisions of this section shall forfeit to the people of the state a sum of five hundred dollars for 29 30 each violation, to be recovered by the commissioner in any legal action 31 taken pursuant to this subdivision. 32 9. The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations for the 33 implementation of this section. § 2. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent a locality from 34 35 enacting and enforcing local laws or ordinances which meet or exceed the 36 standards or requirements set forth in this act. 37 § 3. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 38 have become a law; provided, however, that effective immediately employees may begin the process of requesting remote work or flexible working arrangements pursuant to this act.
