The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1     Section 1. 1. The governor, by and with the advice and consent of the 2     senate, shall within 30 days of the effective date of this act appoint a 3     special prosecutor to investigate and prosecute any death of an unarmed 4     civilian caused by a police officer, as defined in subdivision 34 of 5     section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law. The special prosecutor shall 6     serve for a term of 3 years unless removed by the governor, after notice 7     and an opportunity for a hearing, and then only for one or more of the 8     following reasons: permanent disability which renders the special prose-
9     cutor incapable of performing the duties of his or her office; gross 10    inefficiency, typified by a lack of ability to properly conduct investi-
11    gations and prosecutions; neglect of duty; malfeasance; conviction of a 12    felony; or conduct involving moral turpitude.
- 13    2. Such special prosecutor shall receive an annual salary to be fixed 14    by law from within the amounts appropriated therefor. Such special 15    prosecutor shall possess all of the powers of an assistant attorney 16    general otherwise authorized by this act provided, however that such 17    special prosecutor shall devote his or her full time and effort exclu-
18    sively to investigations and prosecutions of any death of an unarmed 19    civilian caused by a police officer.
- 20    3. The special prosecutor may appoint such other deputies, directors,

5 (a) To exercise all the prosecutorial powers necessary to investigate,

25 regarding the death of a civilian, whether in custody or not, allegedly 26 caused by a police officer, or (ii) the grand jury declines to return an 27 indictment on any charges. The report will include, to the extent possi-28 ble and lawful, an explanation of that outcome and any recommendations 29 for systemic reform arising from the investigation;

30 (e) To make an annual report to the governor, the attorney general and 31 the legislature concerning such work during the preceding year, and to
