Introduced by Sen. SANDERS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Aging

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to providing elder abuse prevention training

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 214-c of the executive law, as added by chapter 184
2 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 214-c. Elder abuse awareness and prevention training. 1. The super-4 intendent, in cooperation with the state office for the aging and the 5 office of children and family services, shall, for all members of the 6 division of state police:

7 [~~1~~] a. develop, maintain and disseminate educational material relat-
8 ing to abuse of adults, including physical abuse, sexual abuse, 9 emotional abuse, active neglect, passive neglect, self neglect, and 10 financial exploitation, as such terms are defined in section four 11 hundred seventy-three of the social services law, and

12 [~~2~~] b. establish and implement written procedures and policies in 13 the event a member of the division of state police encounters such 14 abuse, including the provision of information and referral.

15 2. a. The superintendent shall develop a program to train senior 16 service providers in the detection and reporting of elder abuse. Such 17 program shall also include training on the counseling of elder abuse 18 victims.

19 b. The superintendent shall require that employees of senior centers 20 and employees of entities that contract with the state office for the 21 aging and the office of children and family services to provide services 22 to senior citizens, be trained in elder abuse detection, reporting and 23 counseling, and receive supplemental refresher training regarding the 24 same at least once every three years, if such employee has or is
