IN SENATE

February 26, 2021

Introduced by Sen. BAILEY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Cities 1

AN ACT to amend the New York city charter and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to providing final discipline authority over civilian complaints to the civilian complaint review board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision a of section 434 of the New York city charter is amended to read as follows:

- a. The commissioner shall have cognizance and control of the government, administration, disposition and discipline of the department, and of the police force of the department, with the exception of disciplinary determinations and adjudications made by the civilian complaint review board, which shall not be within the discretion of the police commissioner.
- § 2. Section 440 of the New York city charter, as added by local law number 1 of the city of New York for the year 1993, paragraphs 1, 3 and 1 4 of subdivision (b) as amended by section 1, paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 5 of subdivision (c) as amended by section 2, paragraphs 1 and 2 of subdivision (d) as amended by section 3, paragraph 3 of subdivision (d) as 14 amended by section 4 and subdivision (g) as added by section 5 of question 2 of local law number 215 of the city of New York for the year 2019, is amended to read as follows:
- § 440. Public complaints against members of the police department. (a)

  It is in the interest of the people of the city of New York and the New York city police department that the investigation and prosecution of complaints concerning misconduct by officers of the department towards members of the public be complete, thorough and impartial. These inquires must be conducted fairly and independently, and in a manner in which the public and the police department have confidence. An independent

- 1. The civilian complaint review board shall consist of 15 members of the public. Members shall be residents of the city of New York and shall reflect the diversity of the city's population. The members of the board shall be appointed as follows: (i) five members, one from each of the five boroughs, shall be appointed by the city council; (ii) one member shall be appointed by the public advocate; (iii) three members with experience as law enforcement professionals shall be designated by the police commissioner and appointed by the mayor; (iv) five members shall 14 be appointed by the mayor; and (v) one member shall be appointed jointly by the mayor and the speaker of the council to serve as chair of the board.
  - 2. No member of the board shall hold any other public office or employment. No members, except those designated by the police commissioner, shall have experience as law enforcement professionals, or be former employees of the New York city police department. For the purposes of this section, experience as a law enforcement professional shall include experience as a police officer, criminal investigator, special agent, or a managerial or supervisory employee who exercised substantial policy discretion on law enforcement matters, in a federal, state, or local law enforcement agency, other than experience as an attorney in a prosecutorial agency.
  - 3. The members shall be appointed for terms of three years. The public advocate shall make the public advocate's first appointment to the board on or before May 6, 2020. The board member so appointed shall assume office on July 6, 2020. The mayor and the speaker of the council shall make their initial joint appointment to the board on or before May 6, 2020. The member so appointed shall serve as the board's chair and shall assume office on July 6, 2020.
  - 4. Members of the board shall serve until their successors have been appointed and qualified. In the event of a vacancy on the board during the term of office of a member by reason of removal, death, resignation, or otherwise, a successor shall be chosen in the same manner as the original appointment within 60 days from the date such vacancy occurred. A member appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve for the balance of the unexpired term. During any period in which the office of the chair vacant, the mayor shall select a member of the board to serve as interim chair until such vacancy has been filled.
    - (c) Powers and duties of the board.
- 1. The board shall have the power to receive, investigate, hear, make findings and recommend action upon complaints filed by members of the 46 public or information received by the board against members of the police department that allege misconduct involving excessive use of force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, or use of offensive language, including, but not limited to, slurs relating to race, ethnicity, reli-50 gion, gender, sexual orientation and disability. The board shall also 51 have the power to investigate, hear, make findings and recommend action 52 regarding the truthfulness of any material official statement made by a member of the police department who is the subject of a complaint 54 received by the board, if such statement was made during the course of 55 and in relation to the board's resolution of such complaint. The findings and recommendations of the board, and the basis therefor, shall be submitted to the police commissioner, who shall have no discretion in whether to impose the recommended discipline. Where the board substanti-3 ates one or more allegations against a member of the police department and recommends a level of discipline that would subject the member of the department to being fined, reprimanded, removed, suspended or dismissed from the force, the complaint shall be adjudicated by a hearing officer pursuant to subdivision (d) of this section. No finding or recommendation shall be based solely upon an unsworn complaint or state-9 ment, nor shall prior unsubstantiated, unfounded or withdrawn complaints be the basis for any such finding or recommendation.

- The board shall promulgate rules of procedure in accordance with the city administrative procedure act, including rules that prescribe the manner in which investigations and prosecutions are to be conducted and recommendations made and the manner by which a member of the public is to be informed of the status of his or her complaint. Such rules may provide for the establishment of panels, which shall consist of not less than three members of the board, which shall be empowered to supervise the investigation of matters within the board's jurisdiction pursuant to this section, and to hear, make findings and recommend action on such matters. No such panel shall consist exclusively of members appointed by the council, or designated by the police commissioner, or appointed by the mayor.
- 3. The board, by majority vote of its members, may compel the attendance of witnesses and require the production of such records and other materials as are necessary for the investigation and prosecution of matters within its jurisdiction pursuant to this section. The board may request the corporation counsel to institute proceedings in a court of appropriate jurisdiction to enforce the subpoena power exercised pursuant to this section, and the board itself may, subject to chapter 17 of the charter, institute such proceedings. The board may, subject to any conditions it deems appropriate, delegate to and revoke from its executive director such subpoena authority and authority to institute proceedings.
- 4. The board shall establish a mediation program pursuant to which a complainant may voluntarily choose to resolve a complaint by means of informal conciliation.
- The board is authorized, within appropriations available therefor, to appoint such employees as are necessary to exercise its powers and fulfill its duties. The board shall employ civilian investigators to investigate all matters within its jurisdiction. The board shall create an administrative prosecution unit, staffed by attorneys and the necessary support staff, that shall handle the prosecution of substantiated cases before a hearing officer.
- 6. The board shall issue to the mayor and the city council a semi-annual report which shall describe its activities and summarize its actions.
- 47 7. The board shall have the responsibility of informing the public about the board and its duties, and shall develop and administer an 48 program for the education of the public regarding the 49 on-going 50 provisions of this chapter.
  - (d) Hearings.
- 1. The executive director shall appoint at least one hearing officer, 53 who shall be a civilian with no law enforcement background, to preside 54 over and adjudicate disciplinary proceedings and make final determinations in cases where the board has substantiated one or more allega-

- 2. The hearing officer, upon approval of the board chair, shall have the power to punish an officer, upon a plea of guilty or a finding of quilty after an administrative trial, by reprimand, forfeiting and withholding pay for a specified time, suspension, suspension without pay, or by dismissal from the force. No more than thirty days' salary shall be forfeited or deducted for any offense. Members of the police department may be fined, reprimanded, removed, suspended or dismissed from the force only on written charges made and preferred against them, after such charges have been examined, heard and investigated by the hearing officer, by a preponderance of the evidence, upon such reasonable notice to the member of service charged, and in such manner or procedure, practice, examination and investigation as prescribed, to the extent applicable under sections 15-03 and 15-04 of the Rules of the City of New
- 17 3. The conduct of such hearings shall follow, to the extent applicable, the parameters specified in sections 15-03 and 15-04 of the Rules 18 19 of the City of New York.
  - 4. Attorneys from the board's administrative prosecution unit shall be responsible for the prosecution of cases before the hearing officer.

(e) Cooperation of police department.

- 1. It shall be the duty of the police department to provide such assistance as the board may reasonably request, to cooperate fully with investigations by the board, and to provide to the board upon request records and other materials which are necessary for investigations undertaken pursuant to this section, except such records or materials that cannot be disclosed by law.
- 2. The police commissioner shall ensure that officers and employees of the police department appear before and respond to inquiries of the board and its civilian investigators in connection with investigations and prosecutions undertaken pursuant to this section, provided that such inquiries are conducted in accordance with department procedures for interrogation of members.
- [3. The police commissioner shall report to the board in writing on any action taken, including the level of discipline and any penalty imposed, in all cases in which the board submitted a finding or recommendation to the police commissioner with respect to a matter within its jurisdiction pursuant to this section. In any case substantiated by the board in which the police commissioner intends to impose or has imposed a different penalty or level of discipline than that recommended by the board or by the deputy commissioner responsible for making disciplinary recommendations, the police commissioner shall provide such written report, with notice to the subject officer, no later than 45 days after the imposition of such discipline or in such shorter time frame as may 46 be required pursuant to an agreement between the police commissioner and the board. Such report shall include a detailed explanation of the reasons for deviating from the board's recommendation or the recommendation of the deputy commissioner responsible for making disciplinary recommendations and, in cases in which the police commissioner intends 51 to impose or has imposed a penalty or level of discipline that is lower than that recommended by the board or such deputy commissioner, shall also include an explanation of how the final disciplinary outcome was 54 determined, including each factor the police commissioner considered in 55 making his or her decision.

(e) (f) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to limit [or impair the authority of the police commissioner to discipline members of the department. Nor shall the provisions of this section be construed to limit | the rights of members of the department with respect to disciplinary action, including but not limited to the right to notice and a hearing, which may be established by any provision of law or otherwise.

 $[\frac{\{f\}}{g}]$  (g) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to prevent or hinder the investigation or prosecution of members of the department for violations of law by any court of competent jurisdiction, a grand jury, district attorney, or other authorized officer, agency or body.

(h) 1. Beginning in fiscal year 2021 and for each fiscal year thereafter, the appropriations available to pay for the personal services expenses of the civilian complaint review board during each fiscal year shall not be less than an amount sufficient to fund personal services costs for the number of full-time personnel plus part-time personnel, calculated based on full-time equivalency rates, equal to 0.65 percent of the number of uniform budgeted headcount of the police department for that fiscal year, as determined consistent with published budgeted headcount documents of the office of management and budget. The calculation to determine the minimum appropriations for the personal services expenses of the civilian complaint review board pursuant to this paragraph shall be set forth in the preliminary expense budget, the executive expense budget, and the adopted budget.

- 2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1 and in addition to any action that may be undertaken pursuant to section 106, the appropriations available to pay for the personal services expenses of the civilian complaint review board may be less than the minimum appropriations required by paragraph 1 provided that, prior to adoption of the budget pursuant to section 254 or prior to the adoption of a budget modification pursuant to section 107, the mayor determines that such reduction is fiscally necessary and that such reduction is part of a plan to decrease overall appropriations is due to unforeseen financial circumstances, and the mayor sets forth the basis for such determinations in writing to the council and civilian complaint review board at the time of submission or adoption, as applicable, of any budget or budget modification containing such reduction.
- § 3. Section 14-115 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

§ 14-115 Discipline of members. a. The commissioner shall have power, in his or her discretion, except civilian complaints determined by the civilian complaint review board, in which the commissioner shall have no discretion, on conviction by the commissioner, or by any court or officer of competent jurisdiction, of a member of the force of any criminal offense, or neglect of duty, violation of rules, or neglect or disobedience of orders, or absence without leave, or any conduct injurious to the public peace or welfare, or immoral conduct or conduct unbecoming an officer, or any breach of discipline, to punish the offending party by reprimand, forfeiting and withholding pay for a specified time, suspension, without pay during such suspension, or by dismissal from the force; but no more than thirty days' salary shall be forfeited or deducted for any offense. All such forfeitures shall be paid forthwith into the police pension fund.

b. Members of the force, except as elsewhere provided herein, shall be 56 fined, reprimanded, removed, suspended or dismissed from the force only
