subdivision thereof, cooperation and assistance in the performance of 1 his or her duties and may provide assistance to any district attorney or 2 3 law enforcement official requesting assistance in the investigation or 4 prosecution of any cognizable crime or offense committed within this 5 state. б § 2. Subdivision 8 of section 63 of the executive law, as amended by 7 chapter 451 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows: 8 8. Whenever in [his] the attorney-general's judgment the public interest requires it, the attorney-general may[, with the approval of the 9 governor, and when directed by the governor, shall, inquire into 10 matters concerning the public peace, public safety and public justice. 11 12 For such purpose [he] the attorney-general may, in his discretion, and without civil service examination, appoint and employ, and at pleasure 13 14 remove, such deputies, officers and other persons as he deems necessary, 15 determine their duties and [, with the approval of the governor,] fix 16 their compensation. [All appointments made pursuant to this subdivision 17 shall be immediately reported to the governor, and shall not be reported to any other state officer or department.] Payments of salaries and 18 compensation of officers and employees and of the expenses of the 19 20 inquiry shall be made out of funds provided by the legislature for such 21 purposes, which shall be deposited in a bank or trust company in the names of [the governor and] the attorney-general, payable only on the 22 23 draft or check of the attorney-general [, countersigned by the governor], and such disbursements shall be subject to no audit except by [the 24 governor and] the attorney-general. The attorney-general, his deputy, or 25 26 other officer, designated by him, is empowered to subpoena witnesses, 27 compel their attendance, examine them under oath before himself or a magistrate and require that any books, records, documents or papers 28 29 relevant or material to the inquiry be turned over to [him] the attor-30 ney-general for inspection, examination or audit, pursuant to the civil 31 practice law and rules. If a person subpoenaed to attend upon such 32 inquiry fails to obey the command of a subpoena without reasonable 33 cause, or if a person in attendance upon such inquiry shall, without 34 reasonable cause, refuse to be sworn or to be examined or to answer a 35 question or to produce a book or paper, when ordered so to do by the 36 officer conducting such inquiry, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. It 37 shall be the duty of all public officers, their deputies, assistants and 38 subordinates, clerks and employees, and all other persons, to render and furnish to the attorney-general, his deputy or other designated officer, 39 40 when requested, all information and assistance in their possession and 41 within their power. Each deputy or other officer appointed or designated 42 to conduct such inquiry shall make a weekly report in detail to the attorney-general, in form to be approved by [the governor and] the 43 attorney-general, which report shall be in duplicate, one copy of which 44 45 shall be forthwith, upon its receipt by the attorney-general, [transmit-46 ted by him to the governor]. Any officer participating in such inquiry 47 and any person examined as a witness upon such inquiry who shall disclose to any person other than [the governor or] the attorney-general 48 the name of any witness examined or any information obtained upon such 49 50 inquiry, except as directed by [the governor or] the attorney-general, 51 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. 52 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 700 of the county law, as amended by 53 chapter 560 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows: 54 1. Except as provided in section seven hundred one of this [chapter] 55 article and section sixty-three of the executive law, it shall be the 56 duty of every district attorney to conduct all prosecutions for crimes

1 and offenses cognizable by the courts of the county for which he or she 2 shall have been elected or appointed; except when the place of trial of an indictment is changed from one county to another, it shall be the 3 4 duty of the district attorney of the county where the indictment is 5 found to conduct the trial of the indictment so removed, and it shall be б the duty of the district attorney of the county to which such trial is 7 changed to assist in such trial upon the request of the district attor-8 ney of the county where the indictment was found. He or she shall 9 perform such additional and related duties as may be prescribed by law 10 and directed by the board of supervisors.

11 § 4. Section 927 of the county law is amended to read as follows:

12 § 927. General duties of district attorneys. [It] Notwithstanding the 13 provisions of section sixty-three of the executive law, it shall be the 14 duty of the district attorney of the respective counties of New York, 15 Bronx, Kings, Queens and Richmond to prosecute all crimes and offenses 16 cognizable by the courts of the county for which he shall have been 17 elected or appointed, except when the place of trial of an indictment is changed from one county to another, it shall be the duty of the district 18 attorney of the county where the indictment is found to conduct the 19 20 trial of the indictment so removed, but said district attorney shall 21 assist in the trial of an indictment removed to his county for trial, 22 upon request of the district attorney of the county wherein the indict-23 ment was found. He shall perform the duties prescribed in section seven 24 hundred of this chapter and such other duties as are prescribed by law. § 5. This act shall take effect immediately. 25
