AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to increasing the value of rent subsidies to be included as a part of preventive services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 5 of section 409-a of the 2 social services law, as amended by chapter 624 of the laws of 2019, is 3 amended to read as follows:

4 (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, where a 5 social services official determines that a lack of adequate housing is 6 the primary factor preventing the discharge of a child or children from 7 foster care including, but not limited to, children with the goal of 8 discharge to independent living, preventive services shall include, in 9 addition to any other payments or benefits received by the family,
10 special cash grants in the form of rent subsidies, including rent
11 arrears, or any other assistance, sufficient to obtain adequate housing.
12 Such rent subsidies or assistance shall not exceed the sum of [~~three~~] 13 six hundred dollars per month, shall not be provided for a period of 14 more than three years, and shall be considered a special grant. Nothing 15 in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the ability of those using 16 such rent subsidy to live with roommates. The provisions of this para-17 graph shall not be construed to limit such official's authority to 18 provide other preventive services.

19 § 2. Subdivision 7 of section 409-a of the social services law, as 20 amended by chapter 624 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 21 follows:

22 7. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if a social 23 services official determines that a lack of adequate housing is a factor 24 that may cause the entry of a child or children into foster care and the
