AN ACT to amend the environmental conservation law and the state finance law, in relation to restricting hotels from making available to hotel guests small plastic bottle hospitality personal care products

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Article 27 of the environmental conservation law is amended by adding a new title 32 to read as follows:

TITLe 32
SMALL PLASTIC BOTTLE HOSPITALITY PERSONAL CARE PRODUCT RESTRICTIONS

Section 27-3201. Definitions.

As used in this title:

1. "Hotel" means a building or portion of a building which is regularly used and kept open as such for the lodging of guests. Hotel includes an apartment hotel, a motel or a boarding house, whether or not meals are served.

2. "Hospitality personal care product" means a product provided by a hotel and intended to be applied to or used on the human body or any part thereof for cleansing, conditioning, or moisturizing. Hospitality personal care product includes, but is not limited to, shampoo, conditioner, lotion, and liquid soap.

3. "Small plastic bottle" means a plastic container with less than a twelve ounce capacity that is intended to be non-reusable by the end user.

EXPLANATION—Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [−] is old law to be omitted.
§ 27-3203. Small plastic bottle hospitality personal care products.
Effective January first, two thousand twenty-four for all hotels with fifty rooms or more and January first, two thousand twenty-five for all hotels with less than fifty rooms, a hotel shall not provide any small plastic bottle containing a hospitality personal care product.

§ 27-3205. Violations.
1. A hotel that violates a provision of this title shall receive a warning notice for the first such violation, detailing the hotel's requirement to correct the violation within thirty days from the date the notice is sent. A hotel shall be liable to the state for a civil penalty of two hundred fifty dollars for the first violation after receiving a warning and failing to correct the violation within thirty days and five hundred dollars for any subsequent violation in the same calendar year. A hearing or opportunity to be heard shall be provided prior to the assessment of any civil penalty.

2. The department is hereby authorized to enforce the provisions of this title and all monies collected shall be deposited to the credit of the environmental protection fund established pursuant to section ninety-two-s of the state finance law.

§ 27-3207. Preemption of local law.
Jurisdiction in all matters pertaining to restrictions on the provision of small plastic bottle hospitality personal care products is vested exclusively in the state.

§ 2. Subdivision 3 of section 92-s of the state finance law, as amended by section 3 of part PP of chapter 58 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:
3.
