IN SENATE

March 5, 2021

Introduced by Sen. HINCHEY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Commerce, Economic Development and Small Business

AN ACT to amend the alcoholic beverage control law, in relation to providing distillers with the same privileges currently enjoyed by other New York manufacturers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 61 of the alcoholic beverage control law is amended by adding a new subdivision 9 to read as follows:

9. (a) The holder of a license issued under subdivision one, one-a, two, two-a or two-b of this section may, at the licensed premises, conduct tastings of, and sell at retail for consumption on or off the licensed premises, any liquor manufactured by the licensee or any New York state labeled liquor. Provided, however, that for tastings and sales for on-premises consumption, the licensee shall regularly keep food available for sale or service to its retail customers for consumption on the premises. A licensee providing the following shall be deemed in compliance with this subdivision: (i) sandwiches, soups or other such foods, whether fresh, processed, pre-cooked or frozen; and/or (ii) food items intended to complement the tasting of alcoholic beverages, which shall mean a diversified selection of food that is ordinarily consumed without the use of tableware and can be conveniently consumed while standing or walking, including but not limited to: cheeses, fruits, vegetables, chocolates, breads, mustards and crackers. All of the provisions of this chapter relative to licenses to sell liquor at retail for consumption on and off the premises shall apply so far as applicable to such licensee.

(b)(i) Sales for off-premises consumption may be made only to customers who are physically present upon the licensed premises and such sale shall be concluded by the customer's taking, with him or her, of the sealed containers purchased by the customer at the time the customer leaves the licensed premises.

(ii) Sales for off-premises consumption shall not be made where the order is placed by letter, telephone, fax or e-mail, or where the customer otherwise does not place the order while the customer is physically present upon the premises of the licensed premises.

(iii) Sales for off-premises consumption shall not be made where the contemplated sale requires the licensee to transport or ship by common carrier, sealed containers of liquor to a customer.

§ 2. Section 61 of the alcoholic beverage control law is amended by adding a new subdivision 10 to read as follows:

10. (a) The holder of a license issued under subdivision one, one-a, two, two-a, or two-b of this section may operate a restaurant, hotel, catering establishment, or other food and drinking establishment in or adjacent to the licensed premises and sell at such place, at retail for consumption on the premises, liquor manufactured by the licensee and any New York state labeled liquor. All of the provisions of this chapter relative to licenses to sell liquor at retail for consumption on the premises shall apply so far as applicable to such licensee.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the holder of a license issued under subdivision one, one-a, two, two-a or two-b of this section may apply to the liquor authority for a license to sell beer, wine or liquor at retail for consumption on the premises at such restaurant, hotel, catering establishment, or other food and drinking establishment. All of the provisions of this chapter relative to licenses to sell beer, wine or liquor at retail for consumption on the premises shall apply so far as applicable to such application.

§ 3. Paragraph (g) of subdivision 2-c of section 61 of the alcoholic beverage control law, as added by chapter 431 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

(g) The holder of a license issued under this subdivision may operate up to [~~one~~] five branch [~~office~~] offices located away from the licensed farm distillery. Such [~~location~~] locations shall be considered part of the licensed premises and all activities allowed at and limited to the farm distillery may be conducted at the branch office. Such branch [~~office~~] offices shall not be located within, share a common entrance and exit with, or have any interior access to any other business, including premises licensed to sell alcoholic beverages at retail. Prior to commencing operation of any such branch office, the licensee shall notify the authority of the location of such branch office and the authority may issue a permit for the operation of same.

§ 4. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision 5 of section 101-b of the alcoholic beverage control law, as amended by chapter 522 of the laws of 2003, are amended to read as follows:

(a) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, each such schedule required by paragraph (a) of subdivision three of this section which is filed by a micro-winery, winery, or farm winery, or a class A, A-1, B, B-1, C, or D distiller shall be filed annually on or before the twenty-fifth day of November. The prices and discounts set forth therein shall become effective on the first day of the second succeeding calendar month and shall remain in effect for such twelve succeeding calendar months, unless a price change filing is made pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph.

(ii) A micro-winery, winery, or farm winery, or a class A, A-1, B, B-1, C, or D distiller licensee may file a price schedule change at any time between the required annual filings. Each such price schedule change shall be filed on or before the twenty-fifth day of each month for a change in prices to become effective on the first day of the second succeeding calendar month and shall remain in effect until the effective date of the next filing.

(b) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, each such schedule required by paragraph (b) of subdivision three of this section which is filed by a micro-winery, winery, or farm winery licensee, or a class A, A-1, B, B-1, C, or D distiller shall be filed annually on or before the fifth day of December. The prices and discounts set forth therein shall become effective on the first day of the calendar month following the filing thereof, and shall remain in effect for such twelve succeeding calendar months, unless a price change filing is made pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph.

(ii) A micro-winery, winery, or farm winery, or a class A, A-1, B, B-1, C, or D distiller licensee may file a price schedule change at any time between the required annual filings. Each such price schedule change shall be filed on or before the fifth day of each month for a change in prices to become effective on the first day of the calendar month following the filing thereof and shall remain in effect until the effective date of the next filing.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately, provided that for the purposes of subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) and subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 5 of section 101-b of the alcoholic beverage control law, as amended by section four of this act, the price schedule filing effective at the time this act shall have become a law shall be the licensee's annual filing for 2021.
