AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to requiring employers to disclose compensation or range of compensation to applicants and employees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 194-b to 2 read as follows:

3 § 194-b. Mandatory disclosure of compensation or range of compen-
4 sation. 1. a. Upon issuing an employment opportunity for internal or 5 public viewing an employer shall disclose the following in writing or 6 electronically:

7 (i) the compensation or a range of compensation for such employment 8 opportunity;

9 (ii) the job description for the position, if such description exists; 10 and

11 (iii) a general description of all benefits and other forms of compen-12 sation to be offered.

13 b. An employer shall provide a current employee with the range of 14 compensation in place at the time of such employee's request and the job 15 description, if such description exists, for the employee's current 16 position at the time of hire and upon the employee's request, but no 17 more frequently than once per year.

18 2. No employer shall refuse to interview, hire, promote, employ or 19 otherwise retaliate against an applicant or current employee for exer-
20 cising any rights under this section.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 3. The commissioner may promulgate rules and regulations to effectuate
2 the provisions of this section.

3 4. The department shall conduct a public awareness outreach campaign, 4 which shall include making information available on its website and 5 otherwise informing employers of the provisions of this section.

6 5. a. Any person claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this 7 section may file with the commissioner a complaint regarding such 8 alleged violation for an investigation of such complaint and statement 9 setting the appropriate remedy, if any, pursuant to the provisions of 10 section one hundred ninety-six-a of this article

11 b. An employer who fails to comply with any requirement of this 12 section or any regulation published thereunder shall be deemed in 13 violation of this section and shall be subject to a civil penalty in 14 accordance with section two hundred eighteen of this chapter.

15 6. An employer shall keep and maintain necessary records to comply 16 with the requirements of this section including, but not limited to, the 17 history of compensation ranges for each employment opportunity and the 18 job descriptions for such positions, if such descriptions exist.

19 7. For the purposes of this section the following terms shall have the 20 following meanings:

21 a. "range of compensation" means the range that the employer actually 22 relied on in setting compensation for the position and may be based on, 23 including but not limited to, any applicable pay scale or compensation
24 model relied upon by the employer or the actual range of compensation 25 for those currently holding the position.

26 b. "employer" shall include, but not be limited to:

27 (i) any person, corporation, limited liability company, association,
28 labor organization or entity employing an individual in any occupation, 29 industry, trade, business or service, or any agent thereof; and

30 (ii) any person, corporation, limited liability company, association 31 or entity acting as an employment agent or recruiter, or otherwise 32 connecting applicants with employers.

33 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 34 it shall have become a law.
