AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to providing a deceased tenant's legal representative the option to terminate such tenant's lease upon notice to the landlord

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 236 of the real property law, as added by chapter 156 of the laws of 1965, is amended to read as follows:

§ 236. ~~[Assignment]~~ Termination of lease of a deceased tenant. Notwithstanding any contrary provision contained in any lease hereafter made or renewed which affects premises demised for residential use, or partly for residential and partly for professional use, the executor, administrator or legal representative of a deceased tenant under such a lease~~[, may request the landlord thereunder to consent to the assignment of such a lease, or to the subletting of the premises demised thereby]~~ shall have the option to terminate such a lease upon notice given to the landlord. Such termination shall be effective as of the date on which the tenant's estate notifies the landlord of its election to terminate and surrenders possession of the premises. Such ~~[request]~~ termination option shall be accompanied by the written consent thereto of any co-tenant or guarantor of such lease ~~[and a statement of the name, business and home addresses of the proposed assignee or sublessee. Within ten days after the mailing of such request, the landlord may ask the sender thereof for additional information as will enable the landlord to determine if rejection of such request shall be unreasonable. Within thirty days after the mailing of the request for consent, or of the additional information reasonably asked for by the landlord, whichever~~

~~is later, the landlord shall send a notice to the sender thereof of his election to terminate said lease or to grant or refuse his consent. Landlord's failure to send such a notice shall be deemed to be a consent to the proposed assignment or subletting. If the landlord consents, said lease may be assigned in accordance with the request provided a written agreement by the assignee assuming the performance of the tenant's obligations under the lease is delivered to the landlord in form reasonably satisfactory to the landlord, or the premises may be sublet in accordance with the request, as the case may be, but the estate of the deceased tenant, and any other tenant thereunder, shall nevertheless remain liable for the performance of tenant's obligations under said lease. If the landlord terminates said lease or unreasonably refuses his consent, said lease shall be deemed terminated, and the estate of the deceased tenant and any other tenant thereunder shall be discharged from further liability thereunder as of the last day of the calendar month during which the landlord was required hereunder to exercise his option. If the landlord reasonably refuses his consent, said lease shall continue in full force and effect, subject to the right to make further requests for consent hereunder].~~ Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve the tenant's estate of liability for rent money or any debt incurred prior to the date of termination of the lease, including damages to the premises and any expenses the landlord may incur as a direct result of the tenant's death, except that the tenant's estate shall not be liable for damages or any other penalty for breach of inadequate notice as a result of terminating a lease under this section. Any ~~request,~~ notice or communication required or authorized to be given hereunder shall be sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. This act shall not apply to a proprietary lease, viz.: a lease to, or held by, a tenant entitled thereto by reason of ownership of stock in a corporate owner of premises which operates the same on a cooperative basis. Any waiver of any part of this section shall be void as against public policy.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.
