AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to the determination of adjusted base proportions in certain special assessing units which are not cities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 1803-a of the real property tax law is amended by adding a new paragraph (jj) to read as follows:

(jj) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) of this subdivision to the contrary, in a special assessing unit that is not a city and for current base proportions to be determined by taxes based on such special assessing unit's two thousand twenty-one assessment roll, the current base proportion of any class shall not exceed the adjusted base proportion or adjusted proportion, whichever is appropriate, of the immediately preceding year by more than one percent. Where the computation performed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision would otherwise produce such result, the current base proportion of such class or classes shall be limited to such one percent increase and the legislative body of such special assessing unit shall alter the current base proportion of any or all remaining classes so that the sum of the current base proportions equals one.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
