Security of records. The archivist shall ensure the security of 2 civil rights cold case records in the collection for which disclosure is 3 postponed.

- 6. Digitization of records. Each state agency shall make text-searchable documents available to the review board upon request of such board. Not later than seven days before a civil rights cold case record is publicly disclosed, the state agency releasing such civil rights cold case record shall take all reasonable efforts to provide such civil rights cold case record to the victims of the events to which such civil rights cold case record relates, or to their next of kin.
- 7. Additional policies. The archivist, in consultation with the attorney general, shall develop and implement any policies not enumerated in 12 13 this article that he or she shall deem necessary for the implementation 14 of this article.
 - § 57.62. Grounds for postponement of public disclosure. Disclosure of civil rights cold case records or particular information within a civil rights cold case record to the public may be postponed subject to policy developed by the state attorney general, in consultation with the archivist, to promote justice and to protect innocent parties.
 - § 57.63. Civil rights cold case records review board; establishment and powers. 1. Establishment. There is hereby established a board to be known as the "New York civil rights cold case records review board".
 - 2. Appointment. The commission shall consist of thirteen members, to be appointed as follows: (a) seven members to be appointed by the governor, one of whom the governor shall appoint as the chair; (b) two members shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate; (c) one member shall be appointed by the senate minority leader; (d) two members shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly; and (e) one member shall be appointed by the assembly minority leader.
 - 3. Compensation. The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties under this article. The commission may employ and at pleasure remove such personnel as it may deem necessary for the performance of its functions and fix their compensation within the amounts made available by appropriation therefor.
 - 4. Powers. The review board shall have the power and authority to act in any manner prescribed under this article including, but not limited to, the power and authority to:
 - (a) obtain access to civil rights cold case records that have been identified and organized by a state agency;
- (b) direct a state agency to make available to the review board, and 43 if necessary to investigate the facts surrounding, additional information, records, or testimony from individuals, that the review board deems necessary to fulfill its functions and responsibilities under this article;
 - (c) subpoena private persons to compel the production of documents or other records necessary for the fulfillment of its responsibilities under this article;
 - (d) receive information from the public regarding the identification and public disclosure of civil rights cold case records; and
 - (e) hold hearings, administer oaths, and subpoena documents and other records.
- 54 5. Enforcement of subpoenas. Any subpoena issued under this section 55 shall be enforced by any appropriate court acting pursuant to a lawful 56 request of the review board.
