Introduced by Sen. RIVERA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to protecting patients from certain penalties due to money judgments arising from actions brought by hospitals or health care professionals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision (b) of section 5201 of the civil practice law and rules is amended to read as follows: 2

- (b) Property against which a money judgment may be enforced. A money judgment may be enforced against any property which could be assigned or transferred, whether it consists of a present or future right or interest and whether or not it is vested, unless it is exempt from application to the satisfaction of the judgment. A money judgment entered upon a joint liability of two or more persons may be enforced against individual property of those persons summoned and joint property of such 10 persons with any other persons against whom the judgment is entered. No 11 property lien shall be entered against a debtor's primary residence in actions brought by a hospital licensed under article twenty-eight of the 13 public health law or a health care professional authorized under title 14 eight of the education law.
- 15 § 2. Subdivision (b) of section 5231 of the civil practice law and 16 rules, as amended by chapter 575 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read 17 as follows:
