

STATE OF NEW YORK

6540

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

May 5, 2021

Introduced by Sen. COONEY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to residency requirements for certain peace officers in Monroe county

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 3-b of the public officers law, as 2 separately amended by chapters 145 and 175 of the laws of 2018, is 3 amended to read as follows:

4 1. No sheriff of a county, mayor of a city, or official, or other 5 persons authorized by law to appoint special deputy sheriffs, special 6 constables, marshals, police officers, or peace officers in this state, 7 to preserve the public peace or quell public disturbance, shall hereaft-
8 er, at the instance of any agent, society, association or corporation, 9 or otherwise, appoint as such special deputy, special constable,
10 marshal, police officer, or peace officer, any person who shall not be a 11 citizen of the United States and a resident of the state of New York,
12 and entitled to vote therein at the time of his appointment, and a resi-13 dent of the same county as the mayor or sheriff or other official making 14 such appointment; provided, however, that when, in the judgment of a 15 sheriff of a county except those counties within the city of New York a 16 situation exists which requires temporary additional assistance, such 17 sheriff may appoint special deputy sheriffs who are non-residents of the 18 county but residents of the state of New York who shall hold office
19 until such time as the appointing sheriff determines that the situation 20 no longer exists; and no person shall assume or exercise the functions, 21 powers, duties or privileges incident and belonging to the office of 22 special deputy sheriff, special constables, marshal, police officer, or 23 peace officer, without having first received his appointment in writing 24 from the authority lawfully appointing him. Nothing herein contained,

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD10430-03-1

1 however, shall apply to the appointment of a non-resident, as an emer-2 gency special deputy sheriff, by the sheriff of any county to act when 3 such sheriff has declared a state of special emergency pursuant to the 4 provisions of section two hundred nine-f of the general municipal law.
5 Provided further, that any person otherwise qualified who resides in 6 either the county of Nassau or the county of Suffolk may at the instance 7 of a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals be appointed as a 8 peace officer by the appropriate appointing official of either of such 9 counties notwithstanding that such appointee does not reside in the same
10 county as the appointing official. Provided, further, that any person 11 qualified who resides in a county adjacent to the county of Allegany may 12 at the instance of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals
13 for the county of Allegany be appointed as a peace officer by the appro-
14 priate appointing official of the county of Allegany. Provided, further, 15 that any person qualified who resides in a county adjacent to the county 16 of Albany may at the instance of the society for the prevention of 17 cruelty to animals for the county of Albany be appointed as a peace
18 officer by the appropriate appointing official of the county of Albany.
19 Provided, further, that any person otherwise qualified who resides in 20 the county of Orange or Westchester may at the instance of the society 21 for the prevention of cruelty to animals for the county of Rockland be 22 appointed as a peace officer by the appropriate appointing official of 23 the county of Rockland. Provided, further, that any person qualified who 24 resides in a county adjacent to the county of Monroe may at the instance 25 of the Humane Society of Rochester and Monroe County for the Prevention 26 of Cruelty to Animals, Inc., doing business as Lollypop Farm, be 27 appointed as a peace officer by the appropriate appointing official in 28 the county of Monroe.

29 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.