

STATE OF NEW YORK

6678--A

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

May 11, 2021

Introduced by Sens. MAY, GIANARIS, RAMOS, RIVERA, SALAZAR, SEPULVEDA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the real property actions and proceedings law and the real property law, in relation to establishing the civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds that 2 there is a fundamental human right to adequate housing accommodations.
3 Safe, secure, and accessible housing is essential to achieving equal 4 access to all other fundamental needs. Without housing, individuals and 5 families too often cannot preserve family integrity, gain employment or 6 other income, or enjoy access to healthcare, proper nutrition, and 7 education.
8 Legal proceedings that can lead to eviction are generally complex and 9 are governed by a large body of procedural and substantive law that 10 makes these proceedings extremely difficult to navigate without the 11 assistance of counsel. The overwhelming majority of landlords who seek 12 to evict tenants are represented by legal counsel, while in the areas of 13 New York State where there is no right to counsel most tenants are not 14 represented by counsel. Eviction proceedings, displacement as a result 15 of eviction proceedings, and executed evictions all have a disparate 16 impact on people of color, who are respondents in eviction proceedings
17 in numbers that greatly exceed their proportion of the general New York 18 population. Representation of persons who face losing their homes in 19 legal proceedings makes a determinative difference in outcome by 20 preserving homes and ensuring compliance with laws that, among other 21 purposes, protect the right to safe and secure living conditions,

1 prohibit discrimination, regulate rents and provide rental subsidies.
2 Representation of persons who face losing their homes in legal 3 proceedings is essential to the fair functioning of the justice system 4 and protects the rights to due process and equal protection of the law.

5 Evictions disrupt lives and livelihoods, force tenants to seek alter-6 native housing in a market with a severe shortage of affordable housing 7 and significantly increase the risk of homelessness. The short- and 8 long-term effects of evictions and homelessness are devastating to indi-9 viduals and families and can affect physical and mental health, employ-10 ment, education, and engagement with the criminal justice system.
11 Providing legal assistance to tenants who face eviction not only 12 protects individuals and families from the devastating effects of 13 eviction and homelessness, it saves public funds that would otherwise be 14 spent on shelters and services to people experiencing homelessness as 15 well as public expenses for addressing the wide range of detrimental 16 short- and long-term effects of eviction and homelessness.

17 New York is facing an eviction crisis of unfathomable proportions due 18 to the COVID-19 pandemic. According to an analysis of July 15th Census 19 Bureau data, almost half (46 percent) of all renting households in the 20 state were not able to pay rent and are at risk of eviction. In 2017, 21 New York City adopted legislation that guarantees a right to counsel for 22 tenants facing eviction. Even though the right to counsel in eviction 23 proceedings in New York City is still in the implementation phase, a 24 study conducted by the New York City Office of Civil Justice that 25 analyzed data pertaining to New York City Housing Court proceedings from 26 2013-2019 found that legal representation in eviction matters has an 27 enormously beneficial effect as shown by the following data:

28 1. Evictions dropped 41 percent overall since 2013, including a 15 29 percent drop in 2019 alone;

30 2. Eviction filings dropped by 30 percent between 2013 and 2019, 31 including a 20 percent drop in 2019 alone;

32 3. Default judgments dropped 34 percent between 2013 and 2019;

33 4. Requests by tenants to bring their cases back to the Housing Court 34 calendar on an emergency basis dropped by 38 percent during that time 35 period, because tenant representation is ensuring these issues are 36 addressed at the start of the case; and 37 5. Overall, 84 percent of tenants who were represented by counsel 38 remained in their homes.

39 § 2. The real property actions and proceedings law is amended by 40 adding a new article 7-C to read as follows:

45 800-a. Legislative purpose.

46 800-b. Construction; effect of other laws; severability.

47 800-c. Definitions.

48 800-d. Civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings created.

49 800-e. New York state office of civil justice established.

50 800-f. Provision of legal services.

51 800-g. Community engagement.

52 800-h. Public hearings.

54 § 800. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as 55 the "civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings act".

1 § 800-a. Legislative purpose. 1. Civil right to counsel. The purpose
2 of this article is to create a civil right to counsel in eviction
3 proceedings in New York state that guarantees all covered individuals 4 are provided high quality legal representation at government expense in 5 all covered proceedings. The civil right to counsel for people who face 6 eviction is intended to ensure fair and balanced proceedings that 7 comport with the constitutional rights to due process and equal 8 protection and, given the devastating consequences of eviction, outweigh 9 all other considerations in the administration of legal proceedings that 10 could result in eviction.

11 2. New York constitutional source of the right. The source of the 12 right exists in section one of article seventeen of the New York state 13 constitution, which provides that the aid, care and support of the needy 14 are public concerns and shall be provided by the state and by such of 15 its subdivisions, and in such manner and by such means, as the legisla-16 ture may from time to time determine. Further, section three of article 17 seventeen of the New York state constitution provides that the 18 protection and promotion of the health of the inhabitants of the state 19 are matters of public concern and provisions therefor shall be made by 20 the state and by such of its subdivisions and in such manner, and by 21 such means as the legislature shall from time to time determine.

22 § 800-b. Construction; effect of other laws; severability. 1. This 23 article shall be interpreted broadly to effectuate the purposes 24 described in section eight hundred-a of this article.

25 2. This article shall not be construed to negate, alter, or limit any 26 right to counsel in any civil or criminal action or proceeding otherwise 27 provided under the New York state constitution or any New York state 28 statute. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this 29 article and any other provision of law, this article shall govern.

30 3. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, 31 section or part of this article or the application thereof to any person 32 or circumstance shall be adjudged invalid by a court of competent juris-33 diction, such order or judgment shall not affect or invalidate the 34 remainder of this article, and shall be confined in its operation to the 35 controversy in which it was rendered, and to the word, phrase, clause, 36 sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly 37 involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been 38 rendered.

23 4. The coordinator shall estimate annually the expenditures required 24 for each year of implementation of the program described in this 25 section. The estimate of required expenditures shall be sufficient to 27 and maintain the qualifications set forth in paragraph (c) of subdivi-28 sion one of this section. Beginning January first, two thousand twenty-

34 § 800-g. Community engagement. 1. The coordinator shall identify one

§ 3. Section 701 of the real property actions and proceedings law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. Any court maintaining a covered proceeding, as defined by section eight hundred-c of this chapter, shall notify all respondents by mail upon filing of a petition, not less than fourteen days before trial, of such respondent's civil right to counsel in an eviction proceeding under article seven-C of this chapter.

§ 4. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 711 of the real property actions and proceedings law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 305 of the laws of 1963 and subdivision 2 as amended by section 12 of part M of chapter 36 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

1. The tenant continues in possession of any portion of the premises after the expiration of his term, without the permission of the landlord or, in a case where a new lessee is entitled to possession, without the permission of the new lessee. Acceptance of rent after commencement of the special proceeding upon this ground shall not terminate such proceeding nor effect any award of possession to the landlord or to the new lessee, as the case may be. A proceeding seeking to recover possession of real property by reason of the termination of the term fixed in the lease pursuant to a provision contained therein giving the landlord the right to terminate the time fixed for occupancy under such agreement if he deem the tenant objectionable, shall not be maintainable unless the landlord shall by competent evidence establish to the satisfaction of the court that the tenant is objectionable. No proceeding shall be maintained, and no court shall accept for filing, any petition to recover possession of real property unless the petitioner or an agent of the petitioner has filed an affidavit attesting that the petitioner or the petitioner's agent has provided the respondent with written notice, in the notice of petition and any required predicate notice, of such respondent's right to counsel in eviction proceedings under article seven-C of this chapter.

2. The tenant has defaulted in the payment of rent, pursuant to the agreement under which the premises are held, and a written demand of the rent has been made with at least fourteen days' notice requiring, in the alternative, the payment of the rent, or the possession of the premises,

1 has been served upon him as prescribed in section seven hundred thirty-
2 five of this article. No proceeding shall be maintained, and no court 3 shall accept filing for any petition for non-payment of rent unless the 4 written demand for rent required by this section contains a notice of 5 the respondent's civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings, as 6 required by subdivision six of section seven hundred forty-one of this 7 article. Any person succeeding to the landlord's interest in the prem-8 ises may proceed under this subdivision for rent due his predecessor in 9 interest if he has a right thereto. Where a tenant dies during the term 10 of the lease and rent due has not been paid and the apartment is occu-11 pied by a person with a claim to possession, a proceeding may be 12 commenced naming the occupants of the apartment seeking a possessory 13 judgment only as against the estate. Entry of such a judgment shall be 14 without prejudice to the possessory claims of the occupants, and any 15 warrant issued shall not be effective as against the occupants.

16 § 5. Section 713 of the real property actions and proceedings law is 17 amended by adding a new subdivision 12 to read as follows:

18 12. No proceeding shall be maintained, and no court shall accept for 19 filing, any petition to recover possession of real property unless the 20 petitioner or an agent of the petitioner has filed an affidavit attest-21 ing that the petitioner or the petitioner's agent has provided the 22 respondent with written notice, in the notice of petition and any 23 required predicate notice, of such respondent's right to counsel in 24 eviction proceedings under article seven-C of this chapter.

25 § 6. Section 741 of the real property actions and proceedings law is 26 amended by adding three new subdivisions 6, 7 and 8 to read as follows:

27 6. Notify the respondent of the existence of the civil right to coun-28 sel in eviction proceedings under article seven-C of this chapter, and 29 shall provide a phone number, website address and other information to 30 assist the respondent in securing counsel.

31 7. State the right to an adjournment of the proceedings until a 32 covered individual, as defined in section eight hundred-c of this chap-33 ter, is able to retain and consult with counsel.

34 8. State that any and all predicate notices served upon the respondent 35 included notice of the civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings 36 under article seven-C of this chapter, and provided a phone number, 37 website address and other information to assist the respondent in secur-38 ing counsel.

39 § 7. Section 745 of the real property actions and proceedings law is 40 amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

41 3. Where a respondent who is a covered individual under article 42 seven-C of this chapter appears in court without counsel, the court 43 shall notify such respondent orally of the civil right to counsel in 44 eviction proceedings established by article seven-C of this chapter, and 45 if such respondent would like counsel, the court shall adjourn the trial 46 and provide sufficient time, not less than fourteen days, for such 47 respondent to retain and consult counsel and shall grant such further 48 adjournments as the court deems necessary for such covered individual to 49 obtain counsel.

50 § 8. Subdivisions 1 and 3 of section 749 of the real property actions 51 and proceedings law, as amended by section 19 of part M of chapter 36 of 52 the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

53 1. Upon rendering a final judgment for petitioner, the court shall 54 issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of the county or to any consta-55 ble or marshal of the city in which the property, or a portion thereof, 56 is situated, or, if it is not situated in a city, to any constable of 1 any town in the county, describing the property, stating the earliest 2 date upon which execution may occur pursuant to the order of the court, 3 and commanding the officer to remove all persons named in the proceed-4 ing, provided upon a showing of good cause, the court may issue a stay 5 of re-letting or renovation of the premises for a reasonable period of 6 time. However, no court shall issue a judgment authorizing the issuance 7 of a warrant of eviction against a respondent who has defaulted, or 8 authorize the execution of an eviction pursuant to a default judgment, 9 unless the petitioner or an agent of the petitioner has filed an affida-10 vit attesting that the petitioner or the petitioner's agent has provided 11 the respondent with written notice of the respondent's civil right to 12 counsel in eviction proceedings in the notice of petition and in any 13 predicate notice as required by sections seven hundred eleven, seven 14 hundred forty-one and seven hundred forty-five of this article.

15 3. Nothing contained herein shall deprive the court of the power to 16 stay or vacate such warrant for good cause shown prior to the execution 17 thereof, or to restore the tenant to possession subsequent to execution 18 of the warrant. The failure of the court or the petitioner to comply 19 with the civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings pursuant to 20 article seven-C of this chapter shall constitute good cause to vacate 21 such warrant. In a judgment for non-payment of rent, the court shall 22 vacate a warrant upon tender or deposit with the court of the full rent 23 due at any time prior to its execution, unless the petitioner estab-
24 lishes that the tenant withheld the rent due in bad faith. Petitioner 25 may recover by action any sum of money which was payable at the time 26 when the special proceeding was commenced and the reasonable value of 27 the use and occupation to the time when the warrant was issued, for any 28 period of time with respect to which the agreement does not make any 29 provision for payment of rent.

30 § 9. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 235-i to 31 read as follows:

32 § 235-i. Lease provisions waiving right to counsel void. Any 33 provision of a lease or contract waiving or limiting the right to coun-
