Introduced by Sen. BIAGGI -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Women's Issues

AN ACT to establish a task force on missing women and girls who are black, indigenous and people of color; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature finds 2 that:
- 3 a. According to a 2020 report by the Women's Media Center there are 4 64,000-75,000 missing black women and girls across the United States.
- 5 b. Cases involving black women and girls often do not receive the 6 attention they need and there are often barriers to families reporting a 7 loved one, such as mistrust of police, and racial disparities in how law 8 enforcement treat disappearances.
- 9 c. The tens of thousands of black women and girls who are missing
10 include abductees, sex trafficking victims, and runaways. Black women 11 and girls exist at the intersection of racism and sexism, and often face 12 worse health, wealth, housing, education, and employment outcomes.
- 13 d. Black girls comprise over 40% of domestic sex trafficking victims 14 in the United States.
- 15 e. Law enforcement often categorize missing black girls as runaways 16 and fail to treat their cases with urgency.
- 17 f. According to a 2020 report by the Sovereign Bodies Institute, a 18 nonprofit, indigenous-led research organization, at least 2,306 missing
19 Native American women and girls have gone missing in the last 40 years
20 in the United States, about 1,800 of whom were killed or vanished.
- 21 g. Families of Native American women and girls who have gone missing 22 report a lack of cultural awareness by law enforcement and express frus-
23 tration that their cases are not pursued.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD11613-01-1

1 h. There is not comprehensive state or federal data about missing and 2 murdered Native Americans. Advocates argue that poor record keeping, 3 racial misclassification, adverse relationships between tribal govern-4 ments and outside law enforcement have led to an underreporting of 5 cases.

6 § 2. a. There is hereby established a task force on missing women and 7 girls who are black, indigenous and people of color (BIPOC). Such task 8 force shall be composed of the commissioner of the office of family and 9 children's services, the commissioner of the division of criminal
10 justice services, the superintendent of state police, or the designees
11 of such commissioners and superintendent. Additional members shall be 12 appointed as follows, two shall be appointed by the temporary president 13 of the senate, two shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly, 14 one shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate, and one 15 shall be appointed by the minority leader of the assembly. Members shall 16 be representative of the communities experiencing this crisis, reflect 17 the diversity of New York state, and have experience in cultural compe-18 tency.

19 b. The task force shall:

20 (i) develop policy changes that will work to address the lack of care
21 and concern for missing and murdered BIPOC women and girls with New York 22 state governmental agencies;

23 (ii) advance the knowledge of communities on the severity of BIPOC
24 women and girls who are missing and murdered;

25 (iii) ensure BIPOC communities are educated and trained on the 26 prevention, protection, and protocols relating to missing BIPOC women 27 and girls as it relates to social media;

28 (iv) develop a strategy to collect statistics, demographics, surveys,
29 oral histories, and data analysis;

30 (v) recommend preventive programming and ideas to advance the safety 31 of women and girls;

32 (vi) identify major traffic hubs and highways that lead to or are 33 responsible for the facilitation of the abduction of BIPOC women and 34 girls; and

35 (vii) Create a state-wide awareness campaign.

36 c. In carrying out the duties of the task force, such task force shall 37 seek public input by holding public hearings in each region of the state 38 and accepting public input in writing.

39 d. On or before two years after the effective date of this act, the 40 task force shall submit to the temporary president of the senate, the 41 speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate and the 42 minority leader of the assembly a report containing its findings and 43 recommendations.

44 § 3. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 45 have become a law and shall expire and be deemed repealed three years
46 after such date.
