The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 2 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

1. When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal action or proceeding is or may be required, comes under the control of a court, such court shall, in accordance with this title, by a securing order release the principal on the principal's own recognizance, release the principal under non-monetary conditions, or, where authorized, fix 9 bail or commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. In all such 10 cases, except where another type of securing order is shown to be 11 required by law, the court shall release the principal pending trial on 12 the principal's own recognizance, unless it is demonstrated and the 13 court makes an individualized determination that the principal poses a 14 risk of flight to avoid prosecution or it is demonstrated and the court 15 makes an individualized determination that the principal poses a current 16 physical danger to the safety of any crime victim, person or the community. [If such a finding is made, the court must select the least 17 restrictive alternative and condition or conditions that will reasonably 18 assure the principal's return to court. The court shall explain its 19 20 choice of release, release with conditions, bail or remand on the record 21 or in writing.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
