21 ment fees) for the three year period ending on or within six months of 22 the date of an application pursuant to such criteria as compared with 23 annual net income, which prevailed on the average over the period nine-24 teen hundred sixty-eight through nineteen hundred seventy, or for the 25 first three years of operation if the building was completed since nine-26 teen hundred sixty-eight or for the first three fiscal years after a 27 transfer of title to a new owner provided the new owner can establish to 28 the satisfaction of the commissioner that he or she acquired title to 29 the building as a result of a bona fide sale of the entire building and 30 that the new owner is unable to obtain requisite records for the fiscal 31 years nineteen hundred sixty-eight through nineteen hundred seventy 32 despite diligent efforts to obtain same from predecessors in title and 33 further provided that the new owner can provide financial data covering 34 a minimum of six years under his or her continuous and uninterrupted 35 operation of the building to meet the three year to three year compar-36 ative test periods herein provided; and (b) as to completed building-37 wide major capital improvements, for a finding that such improvements
38 are deemed depreciable under the Internal Revenue Code and that the cost

11 a temporary major capital improvement increase has been filed, a tenant 12 shall have sixty days from the date of mailing of a notice of a proceed-13 ing in which to answer or reply. The state division of housing and 14 community renewal shall provide any responding tenant with the reasons 15 for the division's approval or denial of such application. The division 16 of housing and community renewal shall require the submission of copies 17 of all permits pertaining to major capital improvement work with any 18 application for a major capital improvement rent increase. Any applica-

37 collectability of any dollar excess above said sum to be spread forward 38 in similar increments and added to the stabilized rent as established or 39 set in future years;

tion of the disapproval by the department to the person having filed the plans, the ~~[six months]~~ three month period shall be computed as if no plans whatever had been filed under this proviso. If a condition constituting a rent impairing violation exists in the part of a multiple dwelling used in common by the residents or in the part under the control of the owner thereof, the violation shall be deemed to exist in the respective premises of each resident of the multiple dwelling.

If a resident voluntarily pays rent or an installment of rent when he or she would be privileged to withhold the same under subparagraph a, he or she shall ~~[not thereafter]~~ have ~~[any]~~ a claim or cause of action to recover back the rent or installment of rent so paid. A voluntary payment within the meaning hereof shall mean payment other than one made pursuant to a judgment in an action or special proceeding.

e. ~~[If upon the trial of any action to recover rent or any special proceeding for the recovery of possession because of non-payment of rent it shall appear that the resident has raised a defense under this section in bad faith, or has caused the violation or has refused entry to the owner for the purpose of correcting the condition giving rise to the violation, the court, in its discretion, may impose upon the resident the reasonable costs of the owner, including counsel fees, in maintaining the action or proceeding not to exceed one hundred dollars.]~~ The department shall notify the resident and owner when a rent impairing violation has been placed in their apartment. 1 (a) the pool of rent regulated apartments in New York state contains 2 an unacceptably high number of apartments in which the current rents are 3 based on prior rents that exceeded the legal regulated rent at the time 4 they were charged, but for which remedies were limited under the law in 5 effect before the effective date of the Housing Stability and Tenant
6 Protection Act of 2019 (HSTPA);

7 (b) it is public policy prospectively to reduce, insofar as possi-8 ble, those rents to a level in line with what they would have been in 9 the absence of the unlawful rent setting and deregulations that were 10 permitted under prior law to go unremedied, and therefore to impose the 11 rent calculation standards of the HSTPA prospectively from the date of 12 its enactment, including in cases where the pre-HSTPA rent has already 13 been established by a court or administrative agency;

14 (c) the purpose of the prospective application of the penalty and 15 record review provisions of the HSTPA is to prevent the perpetual 16 collection of unlawful and inflated rents, and to encourage the volun-17 tary registration of any rent stabilized apartment for which any prior 18 annual registration statement has not been filed, and to encourage the 19 voluntary recalculation of unreliable pre-HSTPA rents;

20 (d) in light of court decisions arising under the HSTPA, including 21 Regina Metro v. DHCR, it is public policy that the legislature define 22 clearly the prospective reach of that law, and limit, to the extent 23 required by the constitution, the retroactive reach of that law;

24 (e) despite Regina, the scope of the fraud exception to the pre-HSTPA 25 four-year rule for calculating rents remains unsettled and the subject 26 of litigation, and it is therefore public policy that the legislature 27 codify, without expanding or reducing the liability of landlords under 28 pre-HSTPA law, the standard for applying that exception;

29 (f) the New York state division of housing and community renewal
30 (DHCR) misinterpreted the rent stabilization law for a significant peri-31 od of time with respect to the regulatory obligations arising from the 32 receipt of J-51 and 421-a tax benefits resulting in the unlawful deregulation 33 of tens of thousands of rent-stabilized apartments, the setting
34 of unlawful rents, and the collection of millions of dollars of rent
35 overcharges, during a housing emergency. Both landlords and tenants 36 relied upon the DHCR's misinterpretation of the law. In Regina, the 37 Court of Appeals settled many of the issues arising from overcharge
38 claims by tenants who were misled into refraining from filing overcharge
39 cases during the period when DHCR's erroneous interpretation of the law 40 was in effect, but left open the issue of whether a landlord's ongoing 41 collection of overcharges and failure to return apartments to rent-sta-42 bilization, after the law was clarified, should be treated as fraud;

43 (g) the integrity of the registration system for rent regulated hous-44 ing has been eroded by the use of base date rents, rather than the 45 service and filing of reliable registration statements, to set rents
46 under the law in effect between the enactment of the Rent Regulation 47 Reform Act of 1997 and the HSTPA. It is therefore public policy to 48 impose, prospectively from the date of the enactment of the HSTPA, a 49 rent calculation formula that, insofar as possible, derives the legal 50 regulated rents for apartments from reliable registration statements 51 served upon tenants and made available to the public; and

52 (h) because pre-HSTPA law with respect to the maintenance by landlords 53 of rent records was complex, and has an ongoing impact upon the calcu-
54 lation of post-HSTPA rents, it is necessary to codify the pre-HSTPA law 55 that applied to the destruction of rent records prior to the enactment

1 of the HSTPA, and to define clearly the impact of such law upon the 2 prospective calculation of rents under the HSTPA.

3 § 2. (a) The legal rent for all rent stabilized apartments for the 4 period from July 1, 2019 and thereafter shall be determined in accord-
5 ance with Part F of the HSTPA. Where the legal regulated rent for a rent 6 stabilized apartment for the period prior to June 14, 2019 has been 7 determined by any court or administrative agency, that determination 8 shall not foreclose a recalculation of the post-HSTPA rent, except that 9 any pre-HSTPA rent that, as of June 14, 2019, is lower than the rent 10 that would be permitted to be charged under the HSTPA, shall be deemed 11 to be the lawful rent under the HSTPA on June 15, 2019, and shall be 12 used as the basis for calculating subsequent rents under the HSTPA;

13 (b) Subdivision (a) of this section shall apply to all cases, includ-
14 ing those pending as of June 14, 2019 before any court, appellate tribu-15 nal, or administrative agency in which a claim for rent overcharges or 16 rent arrears has been asserted with respect to rent stabilized housing, 17 the legal regulated rent for the period from June 14, 2019 and thereaft-18 er shall be determined in accordance with Part F of the HSTPA. The legal 19 regulated rent for the portion of any overcharge claim involving rents 20 paid prior to June 14, 2019 shall be determined under pre-HSTPA law, 21 including the default formula in cases of fraud, as codified herein.

22 (c) Nothing in this act, or the HSTPA, or prior law, shall be 23 construed as restricting, impeding or diminishing the use of records of 24 any age or type, going back to any date that may be relevant, for 25 purposes of determining the status of any apartment under the rent 26 stabilization law;

27 (d) The legal regulated rent payable for the period prior to June 14, 28 2019 shall be calculated in accordance with the law in effect prior to 29 the HSTPA, including the prior four-year limitation on the consideration 30 of rent records, and including the fraud exception to such limitation 31 and such other exceptions as existed under prior law and under the regu-32 lations of the New York state division of housing and community renewal.
33 Nothing in this act shall be construed as limiting such exceptions or as 34 limiting the application of any equitable doctrine that extends statutes 35 of limitations generally. With respect to the calculation of legal rents 36 for the period prior to June 14, 2019, an owner shall be deemed to have 37 committed fraud if the owner shall have committed a material breach of 38 any duty, arising under statutory, administrative or common law, to 39 disclose truthfully to any tenant, government agency or judicial or 40 administrative tribunal, the rent, regulatory status, or lease informa-41 tion, for purposes of claiming an unlawful rent or claiming to have 42 deregulated an apartment. The following conduct shall be presumed to 43 have been the product of such fraud: (1) the unlawful deregulation of 44 any apartment, including such deregulation as results from claiming an 45 unlawful increase such as would have brought the rent over the deregu-46 lation threshold that existed under prior law, unless the landlord can 47 prove good faith reliance on a directive or ruling by an administrative 48 agency or court; or (2) beginning October 1, 2011, failing to register, 49 as rent stabilized, any apartment in a building receiving J-51 or 421-a 50 benefits;

51 (e) In accordance with the practice of the New York state division of 52 housing and community renewal prior to June 14, 2019, where fraud is not 53 established, base rents of apartments unlawfully deregulated shall be 54 calculated as the average of rents for comparable rent stabilized apart-55 ments in the building, rather than the default formula applicable to 56 cases involving fraud;

(f) For the period prior to June 14, 2019, neither the version of subdivision g of section 26-516 of the administrative code of the city of New York then in effect, nor the version of section 2523.7 of the rent stabilization code (9 NYCRR 2523.7) then in effect shall be construed as permitting the destruction of rent records for units that have not been properly and timely registered. Where records have been permitted to be destroyed by virtue of proper registration, and no other law required the maintenance of such records, and where the owner has proven that such records were actually destroyed in accordance with prior law and that such destruction took place prior to June 15, 2019, the registration served and filed prior to such lawful destruction of records shall be presumed to be reliable, for purposes of any post-HSTPA calculation of the rent, but that presumption shall be rebuttable. The parties shall be entitled to discovery of any evidence found to be reasonably necessary to demonstrate the legal rent. Nothing in this subdivision shall be interpreted as authorizing the destruction of any record, that under prior law was relevant to establishing (1) the status of an apartment as regulated or unregulated; (2) the presence or absence of fraud with respect to renting any housing accommodation; (3) the presence or absence of willfulness in the collection of overcharges; (4) the useful life of any item, the replacement of which is claimed by the owner to qualify an apartment for a rent increase; (5) the duration of any tenancy, such as would establish whether an owner was entitled under prior law to a longevity increase; or (6) compliance with any law that, independently of the rent stabilization law, required or requires the maintenance of such records. Where the calculation of the rent is dependent upon records that the owner has improperly destroyed, including where the records were destroyed without the apartment having been registered, the rent shall be calculated in accordance with the default formula.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

§ 2. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid and after exhaustion of all further judicial review, the judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act directly involved in the controversy in which the judgment shall have been rendered.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately provided, however, that the applicable effective date of Parts A through D of this act shall be as specifically set forth in the last section of such Parts.
