AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to authorizing the board or managers of a condominium to allow unit owner meetings to be conducted via electronic means

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 339-v of the real property law, as added by chapter 82 of the laws of 1964, is amended to read as follows:

(b) [~~Method~~] Methods of calling meetings of the unit owners; what percentage of the unit owners, if other than a majority, shall constitute a quorum; and what percentage shall, consistent with the provisions of this [~~act~~] section, be necessary to adopt decisions binding on all unit owners. Meetings of unit owners may be held at such physical place as may be fixed by or under the by-laws, or if not so fixed, as determined by the board of managers. Provided, however, that the board of managers may, in its sole discretion, determine that the meeting be held solely by means of electronic communication, the platform/service of which shall be the place of the meeting for purposes of this article. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall prohibit a board of managers from allowing unit owners the option of attending a meeting either at such physical place and/or by means of electronic communication so that unit owners may be present at such meeting.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
