- 2. Such fund shall consist of all revenues received pursuant to the provisions of section six hundred thirty-i of the tax law, and all other monies appropriated, credited, or transferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant to law. Nothing contained herein shall prevent 10 the state from receiving grants, gifts or bequests for the purposes of 11 the fund as defined in this section and depositing them into the fund according to law.
- 13 3. a. On or before the first day of February each year, the comptroller shall certify in a report to the governor, the temporary presi-14 15 dent of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the chair of the 16 senate finance committee and the chair of the assembly ways and means 17 committee, the amount of money deposited in the abortion access fund 18 during the preceding calendar year as the result of revenue derived pursuant to section six hundred thirty-i of the tax law and from 19 20 grants, gifts and bequests. Such report shall include how the monies of 21 the fund were utilized during the preceding calendar year, and shall 22 include:

- (iv) the purposes for which such awards were granted; and
- (v) a summary financial plan for such monies which shall include estimates of all receipts and disbursements for the current and succeeding fiscal years, along with the actual results from the prior fiscal year.
- b. Amounts expended for abortion access funds pursuant to this section 10 shall not affect the amount that would otherwise be appropriated for 11 abortion access funds under any other provision of law.
  - c. The state shall not request, promulgate regulations to, or otherwise require, any non-profit organization receiving monies from the abortion access fund to divulge the name, address, photograph, license number, email address, phone number, or any other personally identifying information of any employee, contractor, or volunteer of such organization, or any patient, or individual who sought or received funding from such organization.
  - d. Any non-profit organization receiving funds from the abortion access fund shall take all necessary steps to ensure the confidentiality of the individuals receiving services.
  - 4. Monies of the fund shall be expended, pursuant to a request for proposals issued by the commissioner of health, to fund the operational and programmatic expenses of not-for-profit entities that provide support to individuals in need of abortion services, by addressing financial and logistical barriers that prevent access to care. This shall include, but is not limited to, funding for medical services and logistical costs.
- 5. Monies shall be payable from the fund on the audit and warrant of the comptroller on vouchers approved and certified by the commissioner of health.
  - 6. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the state or any agency of the state, to request or require any information other than information required in paragraph a of subdivision three of this section, from the award recipients of the abortion access fund.
- 36 § 2. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 630-i to read 37 as follows:
- § 630-i. Gift to the abortion access fund. Effective for any tax year 38 commencing on or after January first, two thousand twenty-three, an 39 individual in any taxable year may elect to contribute to the abortion 40 41 access fund. Such contribution shall be in any whole dollar amount and 42 shall not reduce the amount of state tax owed by such individual. The 43 commissioner shall include space on the personal income tax return to 44 enable a taxpayer to make such contribution. The commissioner shall also 45 ensure that a description of the abortion access fund is included within 46 the tax form preparation instruction booklet. Notwithstanding any other 47 provision of law, all revenues collected pursuant to this section shall be credited to the abortion access fund and shall be used only for those 48 49 purposes enumerated in section ninety-nine-ii of the state finance law.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
